FALL PASTOR'S WORKSHOP

October 2

DR. CHARLES BLAIR — SPEAKER

Dr. Blair will present an afternoon workshop October 2 on the subject, "A Multiple Staff." For further information contact Professor Melvyn Ming at Northwest College.

BASEMENT

Dr. D.V. Hurst

From The President

FALL QUARTER LOOKING GOOD

I'm writing this article from high over Wyoming (35,000 ft.) as I head back from the great Illinois Family Camp, where I was privileged to be the morning Bible Teacher. I'm moving at over 500 miles per hour. It seems the summer is flying by that fast as well, and before we know it we will be launching into the 1979-80 school year, the year that ushers in the decade of the 80's for all of us!

I believe we're going to have a good enrollment at N.C. this year. Both new applications — even with last year — and returning students up in number from last year suggest it.

Exciting things are planned for this year, too. The new Youth Ministries Major has stirred considerable interest. New faculty will include Reverend Wayne Werner in Christian Ed. and his wife, Judy, in Music. Wayne has a M. Div. and good, practical experience in large churches. He and Professor Mel Ming will carry the C.E. Department. Also, Mel Ming will handle the new Youth Ministries courses. Judy Werner has a Masters Degree in Piano and is a fine performer. This should interest serious piano people.

In the residence halls there will be new personnel, except Dean Grimes will return and Mrs. Grimes will handle the Snack Shack — she did a great job last year. John Young will assist Dean Grimes in Beatty Hall as Resident Counselor.

In Guy/Perks Halls, Virginia Mathison will be our new Resident Dean of Women and Faye Wilson the new Assistant Resident Dean of Women (Dean Flisram has retired and Miss Brodin will serve full-time on Faculty). I know these new Women's Deans will be of great help to all living in Guy/Perks Halls!

The contractor says the new twelve unit Married Student residence hall will be ready by fall. This will meet a great need.

Spiritual Emphasis weeks look exciting! Dr. Charles Blair, of Denver's Calvary Temple, will speak in the fall. Missionary Sam Johnson, of Portugal, one of the Assemblies of God's most dynamic young missionaries, will be the January speaker. We've had him on campus before; he's always great. In the spring, Dr. Murray McLees of Eugene, Oregon will speak. He has a practical, pastoral message that will bless us. I know we'll have three great weeks! And there are other features, too!

Before the fall quarter commences my wife, Aggie, and I will have visited the place of her birth in Zaire (Belgian Congo); I will have ministered in the great Revival Center in Nairobi, Kenya; in Bangkok; and Burma with Superintendent Myo Chit, who visited campus during the spring. I know and expect God will make this a time of great blessing.

I'm looking forward to this year! Let's pray that it will be N.C.'s best yet!

MONEY IS AVAILABLE

Pictured is Bev Johnson, Financial Aid Officer. She tells us there are many ways to finance a college education. These include College Work/Study, National Direct Student Loan, Supplemental Educational Opportunity Grant, and Basic Educational Opportunity Grant. Because of the Middle Income Assistance Act signed into law recently, more aid will be available to middle income students. We anticipate funding through the Basic Grant to nearly double last year's allocation. If you know of students who might qualify, encourage them to write the Financial Aid Officer for more information.

SPIRITUAL EMPHASIS SPEAKERS ANNOUNCED

An integral part of the school year at Northwest is a series of special weeks — one each quarter, known as "Spiritual Emphasis Weeks." The heart of the week finds its setting in the College chapel where the ministry of special guests is shared with students and faculty and when the special quest is for the ministry and moving of the Holy Spirit.

Speaker selections for the 1979-80 school year were announced today by College President, Dr. D. V. Hurst. Coming for the Fall Emphasis Week, October 1-5, will be well-known Denver Pastor, Dr. Charles Blair. Coming for the Winter Missionary Emphasis Week, Jan. 14-19, will be the missionary dubbed, "The Giant Killer" the Reverend Sam Johnson, the youthful, yet veteran of the mission field, newly appointed field represented for Europe. Rev. Johnson has been ministering in Spain for the last several years.

Coming for the Spring Spiritual Emphasis Week, March 31-April 4th, will be the Reverend Dr. Murray McLees, well-known pastor of the Willamette Christian Center in Eugene, Oregon. The Reverend Dr. McLees has completed doctoral programs with two graduate schools — the California Graduate School of Theology, and more recently with the University of Oregon where his doctoral dissertation was singled out for special commendation.

Leading the weeks as the spiritual leader of the college community will be President Dr. D. V. Hurst. Services will be held each morning at 9:20 a.m. and each evening at 7:00 p.m. The public is cordially invited.

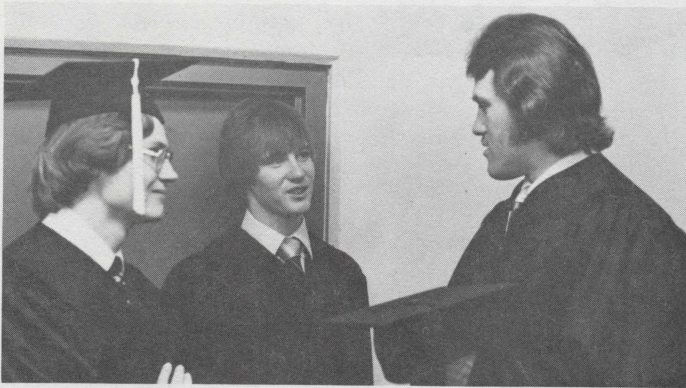

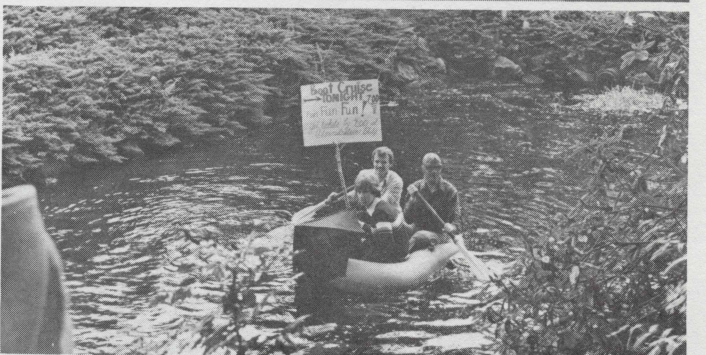

SUMMER SESSION: NEW RECORD!

A new record in summer session enrollments was established at Northwest College, the Registrar's office at the college reported. A total 140 students were enrolled, including 28 auditors, the report indicated. One of the great attractions was the seminar in Biblical Prophecy during the first week of the session which was offered by Dr. David Lewis. Another significant component of the summer enrollment picture was that of the summer internships. A total of 30 students were enrolled in summer internships ranging in locations from Takaoka, Japan; to San Salvador, El Salvador; to Barcelona, Spain; to Fiji in the South Pacific; to Erzhausen, West Germany in Europe. A number of pastoral and Christian Education students are pursuing internships in the Pacific Northwest and Alaska.

Total summer enrollment was up a sharp 32% over one year ago. This was the college's third summer session. Dates for the 1980 session are set for June 2-27.

Students enrolled in the summer session reported that they liked it because of its concentrated "down-to-business" pattern and because of the more personalized student-teacher ratio that summer classes offer.

SCENES FROM SPRING

There is a wide door of opportunity for our grads. Pictured are, Norm Thomas, Jim Hicks and Randy Rowe.

Do you recognize any of our Alumni in the two pictures above? They are from the class of '39.

NEW FACULTY APPOINTMENTS ANNOUNCED

Three new faculty appointments for the 1979-80 academic year, were announced by Dr. Frank B. Rice, Academic Dean of the college. The first appointment is that of the Rev. Wayne C. Werner, who will be teaching in the fields of Music and Christian Education. Originating from Ontario, Canada, Prof. Werner is a graduate of Eastern Pentecostal Bible College; Oral Roberts University and most recently from Trinity Evangelical Divinity School where he received the Master of Divinity Degree. He has served as Minister of youth and music, as pastor, as an associate pastor, and as a Bible College instructor.

Also appointed was Mrs. Judy Nicholson, Werner, wife of Prof. Werner. Mrs. Werner received the B.M.E. at Evangel College and the Master of Music Degree at the University of Missouri in Kansas City Conservatory of Music with a major in Performance Piano. Her teaching experience has been at Evangel College, Continental Bible College, the Jack Benny Center for Arts, and the Zion Conservatory of Music. She has also served as a church choir director. The Werners have two children and will be coming to Northwest from Lake Bluff, Illinois.

The third appointment is that of Mrs. Ruth A. Petty of Metairie, Louisiana, who will be coming as the College's new librarian.

Mrs. Petty took her education at Southern California College (B.A.) and at the University of Washington, where she received her masters degree in Librarianship. She has served as librarian in Bandon, Oregon; in Roseburg, Oregon; in Modesto, California; and in Waiianee, Hawaii.

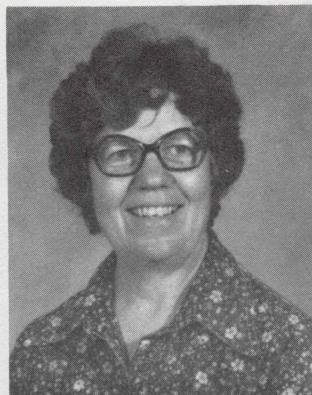

The Werner's will supplement the music and Christian Education staff at the College. Mrs. Petty replaces Mrs. Julie Meier, who has served as librarian at the college for the past two years. Mrs. Meier is moving with her husband, Larry who is taking up new employment in Spokane, Washington.

The appointment of an assistant librarian to replace Mrs. Marlee Huber will be made shortly, Dr. Rice reported. Mrs. Huber is leaving the college to take up domestic pursuits after several years of service at the college.

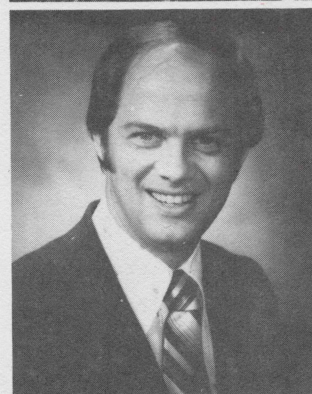

Leaving the college after 13 years of service on the faculty is Prof. Jack Dorwart. Prof. and Mrs. Dorwart have moved to San Diego to embark upon a new type of educational career at the preschool level together with former speech professor, Dr. Donald Tarno. Prof. Dorwart's teaching duties will be redistributed among the several members of the college's English faculty, the newest member of who is Mrs. Marjorie (Sell) Stewart, alumnus of the college. Mrs. Stewart is currently enrolled in a master's program in English at the University of Washington.

YOUTH MINISTRIES MAJOR

A new brochure has been published describing the new Youth Ministries Major. These are available to anyone interested in the program. Write the P. R. department if you would like to receive one or wish us to send one to an interested friend. The program is very exciting!

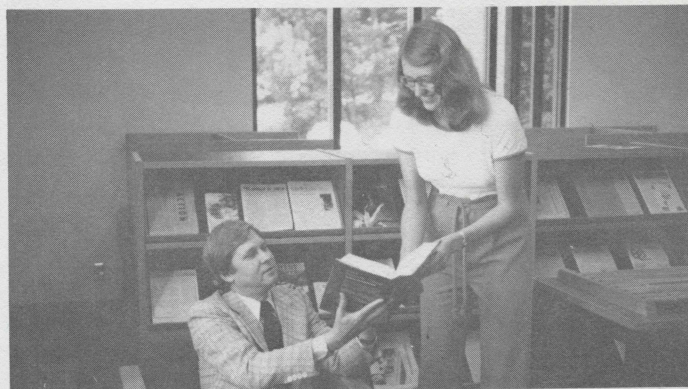

Mrs. Ruth Petty, visited the Campus recently and is very excited about her appointment as head librarian. Her years of experience plus her love for young people make her well qualified for her task.

Rev. Duane Dorsing is our new Missionary In Residency. He is a 1963 grad of N. C. He completed his Master's degree at the A/G Grad School this summer. His appointment to N. C. is for one year after which he will return to the field. In addition to teaching the missions subjects he will be available for counseling with the missions majors. The Dorsings will continue to be supported by their supporting churches and appreciate the prayers of the churches for their missions ministry at home this next year.

55,000 VOLUME

The 55,000 volume in the D. V. Hurst Library is being presented to Dr. Rice by Marlee Huber. This special book entitled Encyclopedia of Theology, which is edited by Carl Rahner. The volume is an excellent source book for upper-division students in the Bible and Theology division.

ALUMNI SCHOLARSHIPS

The Alumni Scholarship fund is always in need of help. We try to give 5 students $300.00 for the year. We would like to do much more but at this point we really need the help for everyone to meet our current commitment. We have a great association and we can and will go over the top.

teacher feature:

DARRELL HOBSON

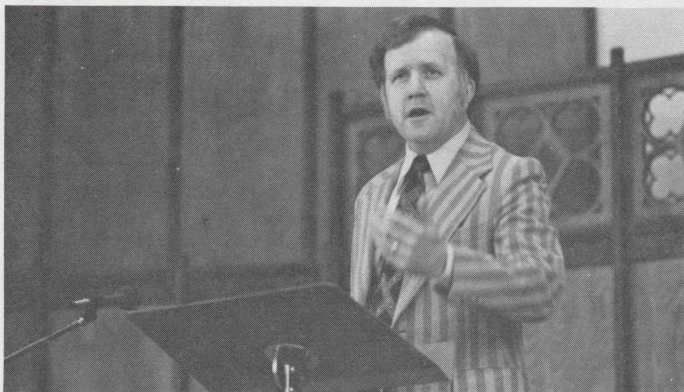

Among the younger members of the NC faculty is Darrell Hobson, Instructor of Biblical Literature with special interest in the Old Testament. Darrell is a graduate of Northwest College, having received both the Bachelor of Arts and Bachelor of Theology degrees in 1970. Afterwards, he entered graduate studies at SPU and began teaching at NC on a parttime basis in 1973. Since 1977 he has been a member of the regular teaching faculty.

In conversing with Darrell, one is likely to be impressed with his knowledge of the many authors on Biblical subjects. But his preparation for a teaching career has also included practical experience. While a student, he served several churches as part of their pastoral staffs — a practice he has continued since joining the faculty. He also augmented his income by selling shoes in a nearby department store — a job he commends for the development of patience.

Darrell is very popular with students who have a serious purpose to learn the Bible. Some have called his approach to teaching "new and inspiring." Obviously, he both loves to learn and to teach.

When not engaged in scholarly pursuits, Darrell is likely to be working on his home. His woodworking and carpentry skills, combined with his wife Gigi's decorating skills, have turned a tract house into a uniquely suitable home. Suitable for his family of three, that is — Darrell, Gigi, and Erich, who is their pride and joy.

CHAPEL SPEAKER

Professor Leroy Johnson was one of the chapel speakers Spring quarter. Professor Johnson teaches History and is the assistant basketball coach. He also conducts conferences and workshops on ushering for local churches.

GOSPEL TEAMS

The Gospel Team program should be underway by mid October. Any churches within a two hour drive from the college interested in having a team should contact Fred Haack through the P. R. department.

SUMMER INSTITUTE OF LINGUISTICS

Dr. Benjamin E. Elson, consultant for the SIL and the Wycliff Bible Translators hands a copy of "Language and Faith" to a summer student. Dr. Elson is the former executive Vice President of the organization.

This is the fourth summer that the SIL has used the campus as their headquarters for one of three summer sessions. People from several missions groups come each year for training with approximately 20% of the students being a part of or becoming a part of the Wycliff Bible Translators. Course work is taken at the University of Washington with a small number of courses taught at N.C. The students and families use the Northwest College dorms, the cafeteria and the Learning Center. Special times each day are set aside for group devotions as they share together.

Three basic subjects are taught each summer. One is a full course of phonetics, which deals with the principles of formulation of the various speech sounds that the human vocal apparatus is capable of, including tone, intonation, stress, and duration. The second course in Phonological Analyst, which is very involved and the final result is the development of an alphabet. The third course is Grammatical Analysis. Simply stated, this involves the analysis of words, sentences, etc.

Any person interested in attending next summer's Institute of Linguistics should write: Summer Institute of Linguistics; 7500 West Camp Wisdom Rd.; Dallas, Texas; 75236.

KIND WORDS

From — The Gary Randal program:

"...I appreciated having the Northwesterners on our T.V. program here in Portland. They were a tremendous inspiration to me, our television audience, and our viewing audience... It's indeed a privilege to be associated with the college..."

From — Davenport, Wa.:

"...I want to express our appreciation of their worshipful, Christ centered and yet professional ministry..." "They were cheerful throughout their time here, and thoroughly co-operative with the program and director of the local church."

From — Mrs. Ken Huling:

"We were happy to be able to get to some of the Camp Meetings where the Northwesterners ministered. You may be very proud of their ministry and behavior. They are good musicians and also know how to work well with others and to follow the leading of the Lord... They were loved and appreciated by campers, ministers, parents, and other staff members. They reflect well on what the Lord is doing through your school."

GRADUATION GIFT IDEA

Are you still looking for an idea for a graduation gift for a loved one or a friend? Maybe you have already given something but would like to make a meaningful contribution toward the future of some young person. You might consider a scholarship gift. This would be an appreciated gift. Most high school graduates who are going to college need financial assistance even in small amounts.

Although the gift would not be a tax-deductible item for the giver, it would be very practical. It may even make the difference between a young person deciding to attend a Christian College over a secular institution.

If you would like further information about this possibility, contact the Financial Aid Department or the Public Relations Department at Northwest College.

JUNE FLYING SEMINAR HAD "VARIETY"

The nineteen members of the Northwest College Flying Seminar to the Holy Land which just returned to campus, chalked over 17,000 miles. They travelled via an unusual variety of travel modes ranging from horseback to jet plane and ship. "Everything moved like clockwork," reported Dr. Amos D. Millard, who lead and hosted the College's 12th Flying Seminar.

The group averaged nearly 1100 miles per day for the 16 day seminar. They covered a variety of Biblical settings ranging from those of the Patriarchs in the Book of Genesis to those found in the geography of the Book of Revelation. They utilized modes of transportation varying from horseback to the fabled city of Petra in Jordanian mountains south of the Dead Sea, to a cruise of the Greek Islands on the MTS Atlantis out of Athens. The greatest number of miles were chalked by air using the famed polar route from Seattle to Copenhagen and thence to Amman, Jordan where the group deplaned for visits to Jordan, Damascus, Petra, and Israel.

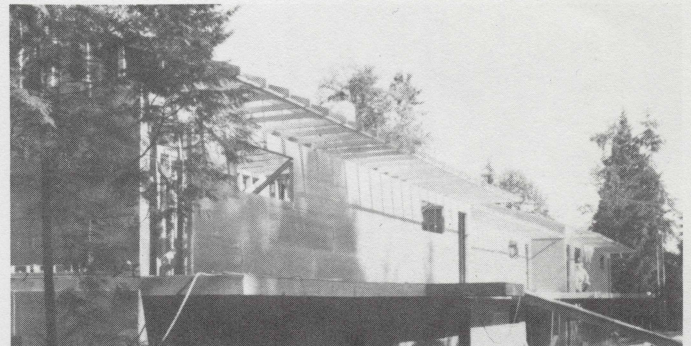

Among the highlights of the tour in Israel the groups had opportunity to meet U.S. Senator Henry M. Jackson, in Bethlehem. Senator Jackson was the honored guest of the Israeli Government during the time that the seminar party was touring Israel.

Concluding the 16-day seminar was a four-day cruise of the Greek Islands which took the seminar group to quaint sea-side Greek villages and historic spots on the islands of Mykonos, to ancient Ephesus in Turkey, to the famed Isle of the Apocalypse, Patmos, Rhodes, Crete, and Santorini, of geological fame for its volcanic eruptions around the time of the Exodus from Egypt. On the return flight the group toured Rome and then onto Copenhagen for its return to Seattle on July 10th.

Among the 19 members of the Flying Seminar party were several teachers and students.

The tour for the coming year is being planned now and will concentrate in the Land of Israel. Tentatively dubbed as a "Dan to Beersheba" tour the itinerary will give special emphasis to biblical, historical, and archaeological sites in Israel including a number of "off the beaten path" places. Dates are set for March 6-20.

There is no plan to schedule a summer tour next year. Interested persons may be put on the College's mailing list to receive monthly bulletins detailing information on the college's tour plans. A study program is scheduled in preparation for the tour and is offered at no extra cost. Write Northwest College, P.O. Box 579. Or call 822-8266 ext. 238.

Married housing as of Aug. 2. Will it be ready Sept. 17?
