

The Campus

BULLETIN

NOVEMBER 9, 1978

A Baseball Coach once rebuked a confident player who said their team would win because it had "the will to win".

"Don't kid yourself," said the coach. "The will to win is important, but it isn't worth a nickel unless you also have the will to prepare."

ALL STUDENT ACCOUNTS WERE DUE IN FULL on November 2. Unpaid balances should be paid immediately.

HARVESTIME SOCIAL!

Come and act your age!! Be a kid once again at the Social this Sat. night, Nov. 11th 7:30-10:45. Dress up as a little kid and come prepared to have a blast. Get into all the games, songs, and all around fun. This is one of the biggest socials of the year, so don't miss it for anything!! Be a kid and be yourself!!

WOULD ANYONE LIKE TO GIVE US A HAND? Sat. beginning at 9:00 a.m. there will be a work party in the gym to prepare for the Harvest Time "Kiddie Day" Social. Bring your painting, carpentry, decorating talents with you! Thanks!!

ALL RESIDENCE STUDENTS - In hours for Sat. November 11th will be 1:00 p.m.

FINANCIAL AID RECIPIENTS - Any student receiving any type of federal aid and/or state need grant who will not be returning winter quarter must check out with the Financial Aids Office. This would also include students who have received a NDSL loan in any prior year. Thank you.

MARRIED STUDENTS: MSA will meet Nov. 14th during Chapel to nominate and elect a qualified person to the office of Sec-Treas. Other topics of concern will also be discussed.

OPERATION TURKEY - If you don't know what it is come to Chapel tomorrow and find out. If you do know what it is, prayerfully consider being a part of it. Operation Turkey needs you.

BIBLE DRIVE - Student response to WOM's Bible Drive has been great. The offering was $1,015 and several boxes of Bibles have already been collected. Thanks for helping us spread the Word! Bible boxes will be in the SUB, Chapel and both residences for one more week.

GRADUATING STUDENT - Pastor Mike Drew, Hunters Washington, Columbia Heights Assembly of God, will be on campus today (11-9-78) to talk to graduating students regarding youth ministry. You that are interested contact him in the Library, Rm 4 from 1-3 p.m.

COME AND PRAY that the Lord of the Harvest would send forth laborers. Missions MIG Tues, 8:00 p.m. and Thurs, 3:00 p.m. in the SUB Chapel.

An Ancient African Proverb: "Are you a Turkey because people say you are, or are you a Turkey because you chose to be." Come to Chapel Nov. 10, and find the true meaning of this profound proverb.

TUTORING - Lake Washington School District has 130 students with limited English, who need tutoring help. No foreign language experience is needed but if you know Vietnamese, Thai, Filipino, Norwegian, Japanese, Chinese, Middle Eastern languages or Spanish it will be a big help. Knowledge of these languages is not essential. Credit is available through Seattle Pacific University. See Keith Kidwell or Roger Trinkle for details.

EVANGELISM MIG - We will be going on two outreaches this Fri, Nov. 10. Please meet in the SUB Chapel at 1:30 p.m. for outreach to Univ. of Wash. We will return at 4:30pm. Please meet in the SUB Chapel at 6:30 p.m. for outreach to South Center Mall. We will return at 10:00 p.m.

KID'S MIG - This is the week for our group to put on the service at the Children's Orthopedic Hospital. We'll be meeting in Guy-Perks lounge at 8:30 a.m. on Sunday.

KARISMA - We're still calling HELP!! Writers: Artists - Poems - Prose - Graphic Art with a message. Poem for "Reaching Arms." Deadline for all material is December 1.

THANK YOU - Dean and Mrs. Grimes wish to express their appreciation to the men of Gray-Beatty Halls for the fine way the recent open dorms was conducted, and also to the fine young ladies who came as guests from Guy-Perks Hall to brighten our evening. It was an hour of good fellowship and fun.
