

STUDENT BULLETIN
APRIL 21, 1977

A vacation is that period during which people find out where to stay away from next year.

All graduating seniors are requested to go to Room L-103 4th period on Friday, April 22, to take the AABC Bible Content Test. The purpose is to determine the average growth in Bible knowledge since the freshman year. Individual grades for students are not involved. Thanks for cooperating. Please bring a number 2 pencil.

Rev. Victor Grasley of the Harvest Hour will be on campus in the near future to interview seniors or students who would like to participate in a summer traveling musical ministry. CONTACT: Melodee Hunt in the Registrar's Office, Bronson Hall.

Northwest Ladies Auxilliary Scholarship application forms are now available. Scholastic standing, financial need and character will be some of the factors considered. Please obtain forms from Mrs. Harmon in P-2 or the receptionist in the Administration Building, and return them no later than April 29.

The Evangelism Mig will be going to Seattle Center this Friday, April 22. Please meet in Perks at 6:30 p.m. We will return at 9:30 p.m.

Financial Aid Awards - All students attending Northwest College next year, and wishing to be considered for financial aid awards (of any kind) must fill out and submit as required the following forms AS SOON AS POSSIBLE: (1) A BEOG Application; (2) An FAF (Financial Aid Form) to College Scholarship Service; and (3) a Financial Aid Application to Northwest College. Items (1) and (2) are prerequisites for consideration under item (3) under our new financial aid operating instructions. We must know your eligibility under those two systems before we complete a financial aid package for you.

HELP!! LOST!! One textbook, "NEW TESTAMENT GREEK FOR BEGINNERS" by Machen. Needed desperately for mid-terms. Contact Dean Kimber (827-6124 - "Firs" #14), or leave at Lost & Found in the Administration Building, or leave it at the Sub Snack Shack. THANK YOU.
