

STUDENT BULLETIN
JANUARY 13, 1977

THOUGHT FOR THE DAY: CONSCIENCE: The voice that tells you not to do something after you have done it.

PIZZA FEED: There is going to be an ALL SCHOOL PIZZA FEED tonight at Pietro's near Cross roads in Bellevue. It will begin at 8:00 and last till 9:30. Cost $1.75 for all you can eat (this is just pizza!) There will be car pools & a caravan. Please Come - it will be alot of fun.♯

EVANGELISM MIG: The Evangelism Mig will be going to the Univ. of Wash. on Fri, Jan. 14. Please meet in front of Perks at 2:30 p.m. Please come and join us in our 1st outreach of the quarter!

PRAISE THE LORD! Last week's offering for M.I.G. operations was $577.00! That was great. Friday, Mary Ballenger from Senegal, Africa, and alumnus of N.C. will be our speaker. We are going to be taking an offering for her and her work in the Bible School in Senegal, so come prepared to give!

RESUME PICTURES: Negatives for the picgures taken for the annual last year are available for purchase at 50¢, for students needing ID pictures for resumes. Having these done at at studio would cost $15. See Mr. Gustafson.

FREE MONEY: All students who have had the Basic Educational Opportunity Grant or who have never applied to determine their eligibility should get the application now available in the Financial Aids Office for the 1977-78 school year. If you plan to apply for financial aid of any kind, the Basic Educational Grant application is a preliminary requirement before other applications for aid should be submitted.

Those who are involved in the tutoring MIG, please remember to meet in Perks lounge at 2:30 Tuesday afternoon to go for the orientation session.♯

FORENSIC MEETS: Northwest College students will be involved in at least 2 forensic meets this year.. The 1st will be at the Pacific Lutheran Univ. on Jan. 28th & 29th, and the second (tentative) will be at Lower Columbia College on Feb. 18th & 19th. We plan on entering the individual events of oratory, impromptu, expository speaking, and interpretative reading. If you have at least high school experience in forensic tournaments and are willing to prepare yourself, please contact Mr. French for information.
