Spiritual Emphasis Week evening meetings.

THE FLYING SEMINAR LECTURE series will start this coming MONDAY evening in the Donald H.
Fee Lecture Hall - Room 2. If you want to know what the Flying Seminar is all about,
you are welcome to come for this illustrated lecture which will overview the coming March tour to the Holy Land. For info.
about the tours planned for 1979 see Pres.
Hurst or Dr. Millard.

POTENTIAL SUMMER CHRISTIAN ED. INTERNS -

Pastor DENNIS SUNDERLAND, of Walla Walla First Assembly of God will be on campus to interview for potential summer Christian Education interns on the morning of Jan.
10th. Appointments can be made in the Registrar's office in Bronson Hall.

FINANCIAL AID - The 1979-80 financial aid applications are now available in the Admin-Building. The sooner you apply, the better your chances are for financial aid in the 1979-80 academic year. Because of recent legislation passed by Congress, more students will qualify for Basic Grants in 1979-80. It is highly recommended that all students apply for a Basic Grant through the Financial Aid Form. You can pick up the applications from the reception ist or Financial Aid Officer.

HAPPY NEW YEAR!

THE AGP RAPID READING SEMINAR is being offered on campus Jan. 8, 22, & 29; 7-9 p.m.
These 3 sessions are designed to help you read faster and comprehend better. In fact it guarantees you will read twice as fast.
So join us Monday, Jan. 8th at 7:00 p.m.
Cost is $36, payable at the first class session. (AGP is separate from N.C., so payments are not through your N.C. account)

KCNC RADIO will have an organizational meeting, Monday night at 6:00 in the SUB.
All individuals who are in Radio Workshop are REQUIRED to attend.

KCNC has a 1200' reel to reel Ampex Tape for sale. Excellent Buy. See Mr. French, Mike Tatham, or Jed Williams.

THE SPEECH TEAM will participate in the first tournament of the season at Seattle Pacific University on Jan. 12th and 13th.
ALL TEAM MEMBERS SEE MR. FRENCH NOW!

INTRAMURAL BASKETBALL - Sign-up sheets will be up in the men's dorm for on campus students and in the SUB for off campus students. Captains will be selected for each team and a draft will be held on Tues., Jan. 16th.

INTRAMURAL BOWLING - Any students interested in Intramural Bowling meet with Coach Kinney after Chapel on Wed., Jan. 10th.
Open for guys and girls.

VARSITY BASKETBALL - FRIDAY and SATURDAY nights will provide home games for the "EAGLES". Girls preliminary games will begin at 5:45 both nights. Northwest hosts the Puget Sound College of the Bible Anchormen on Friday, and the first conference game with Concordia College Cavaliers on Saturday.

TAPPROOT THEATER - When? Jan. 9, 1979
Place? Learning Center, N.C. Time?
7:00 & 8:30 (2 performances) Cost? $50

The Tapproot Theater will be presenting
The Old Time, Hard Testament Revue and Non-Prophet Show. This drama presentation takes a light-hearted look at the dilemmas of several Old Testament characters and casts light on our own present-day problems of obedience to God's will.
