NDSL RECIPIENTS: All students who are receiving a National Direct Student Loan through the College this year should report to the Cashier's window in the Administration Building to sign their Promissory Note for the fall quarter loan amount. This notice is not intended for Guaranteed Student Loan recipients who have borrowed money from a bank or credit union.

OFF CAMPUS EMPLOYMENT: For male students who are enrolled in the Junior College division and have filed a Financial Aid Form through the College Scholarship Service, there may be an employment position open for you. Great job with unlimited learning potential: Cabinetmaking 19 hours per week. The employer will train. They need you now! Contact Bev Johnson, Financial Aid Office for more details. Thanks!

ON CAMPUS EMPLOYMENT: There are two positions open on the grounds crew right now for two individuals - 20 hrs. per week. For more info contact Bev Johnson or Dan Paulsson.

AWS Fashion Show: There is a sign-up poster in the Cafeteria for those interested in modeling in the Fall Fashion Show. Those wishing to model their own clothes which fit under one of the categories should sign up under the appropriate title even if you have previously submitted your name. The officers of AMS, AWS, and MSA invite both men and women to help make this Fashion Show great! We need ushers and stagehands as well. The last day to sign up is this Friday, October 9.

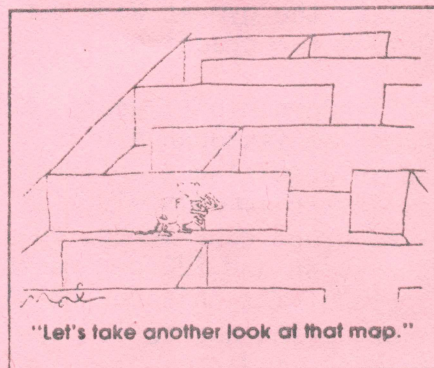

ACEI meeting to be held in H-105 at 3:30 on Monday, October 12. All interested students in Education or Christian Ed. are invited to come. Refreshments will be served. Mrs. Clark has ACEI books on sale at bargain prices this week until Friday.

Allow the Lord to minister through you and come to Fort Lewis with the Servicemen's MIG. Meet Saturday, at 5:30 p.m. in the SUB.

If your desire is to learn more about witnessing, plan on coming on the Evangelism MIG. There will be a meeting this Friday at 7:00 in the SUB. Bring a good friend.

AWS Fashion Show needs a wishing well. If you have one or know where to get one, please contact Ellen Lamm in GP 415 or at 822-9978.

Ministry Opportunity: The Korean Church under the leadership of Pastor Sam Cho needs a Christian Education Major to direct their Education hour Sunday afternoons 1:30-4:00 p.m. in the Neighborhood Church facilities. There are approximately 10 students attending now of mixed ages. This is a tremendous opportunity to anyone interested in missions, or ministering to the third world people. Remuneration for gas, etc., will be worked out. Please contact Mr. Werner ext. 247 or office #13 in Bronson Hall.

Northwest College presents

A Regional Youth Worker Training Conference

11102 N.E. 53rd St., Kirkland, WA 98033 Phone: (206) 822-8266

Over 20 general sessions, seminars, workshops, and special events featuring these experienced communicators:

RICH WILKERSON President of MAINSTREAM. This author and evangelist, formerly a youth pastor for two large evangelical churches, has a reputation for delivering hardhitting messages that speak to issues of current society.

JOE TUTEN Pastor of Cedar Park Assembly of God Church in Kirkland, Washington. Previously a youth pastor, now serving as vice president of Mainstream, vice president of Calcutta Mission of Mercy, and secretary of Family Broadcasting.

WAYNE GOODALL Associate Pastor of Neighborhood Church in Portland, Oregon. He is a licensed counselor and holds a Master's Degree in Guidance and Counseling. He serves as Treasurer for MAINSTREAM.

STEVE FRY Known for his songwriting abilities, he has toured the U.S. and Europe with his youth outreach teams presenting his opera "Prepare Ye the Way." He is associate pastor and director of youth at Calvary Community Church in San Jose, California.

BOB MADDEX President of Capital Bible Institute, a full time Bible training school, and director of Jesus West Coast, a large three day Jesus festival. He is the author of "Gem of the Wanderer," a book published by Bible Voice.

RALPH TORRES Director of Youth Ministries at Church on the Way in Van Nuys, California, he ministers to the needs of 800 youth weekly. He specializes in Junior High Ministry and the unique problems facing adolescents.

STEVE NINTON Director of Youth Ministries for 7 years at Willamette Christian Center in Eugene, Oregon, Steve ministers to 250 youth within that community. He is a gifted communicator concerning the practical aspects of youth ministry.

SUE NINTON A youth pastor's wife for over 10 years, she has a wealth of experience in assisting her husband minister to the needs of young people. Her honest appraisal of a youth pastor's home and family life will provide encouragement to each youth worker in attendance.

ROBYN WILKERSON Formerly Vice President of a mortgage company in Sacramento, CA, and wife of Rich Wilkerson. Her assessment of the problems and needs of pastors' wives will confront the identity crisis that so often plagues the parsonage.

Starts Thursday, October 15 at 7:30 p.m.
