"Now faith is the substance of things hoped for, the evidence of things not seen."

Hebrews 11:1

FALL QUARTER REGISTRATION APPOINTMENT RESERVATIONS EARLY IN LINE appointments for registration in the FALL Quarter will be on a first-come basis in the Registrar's Office starting MAY 1 through the second week of May. After May 15, a general canvas will be made in Chapel, and appointment numbers will be assigned on a random basis.

This is the night, Tuesday night. This is the time 9:30 p.m. What's it for? To worship the Lord, together. Who's it for? It's for all the men of Gray and Beatty Halls. What is it? It's your AMS meeting. Come one, come all, to sing, praise, and speak of the Lord's greatness.

See David Wilkerson's new film on teenage alcoholism at the Chapel on Friday, May 2 at 7:30 p.m. This is being presented free of charge by the ASB. Don't miss it!

The Results of the Taylor-Johnson Temperament Analysis Tests are available. To see your profile results, make an appointment to see Mr. Kinney or Miss Brodin. All appointments should be made through Lorelei West in the Administration Building.

The film, "All the King's Horses" will be shown in the chapel Saturday evening, May 10. This will be something you will not want to miss.

MARRIAGE CHAPEL SERIES AND SEMINAR

Dr. Parlotz will be presenting a three part series and seminar on marriage. The first two sessions are open to all students and are scheduled on April 30 and May 1 as the Chapel services. This series will involve:

"Candlelight and Other Nuptial Traditions: So You Came Here to Get Married?"

"What Is This Intimate Relationship Called Marriage?"

"The Caveman Approach to Courtship for Cave Persons"

"Courtship: The Athletic Main Event or A Springboard for a Growing Relationship"

On Saturday, May 3, from 9:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m., in L-101, a seminar will be presented for engaged couples and married couples (one member of these couples should be enrolled currently as a student).

Please register for the Saturday Engaged Couples' Seminar in the Administration Building by Wednesday, April 30. There will be a $2.00 per couple fee. Please pay at registration time. (The fee will cover refreshments; lunch is not included. Participants will eat together with Dr. Parlotz for informal conversation in the separate dining area of the cafeteria.)

Engaged couples desiring pre-marital counseling including the Taylor-Johnson Temperament Analysis should see Lorelei West in the Administration Building to schedule an appointment with Dr. Parlotz.
