BULLETIN

January 29, 1981

"So my counsel is: Don't worry about things - food, drink and clothes. For you already have life and a body - and they are far more important than what to eat and wear. Look at the birds! They don't worry about what to eat - they don't need to sow or reap or store up food - for your heavenly Father feeds them. And you are far more valuable to him than they are. Will all your worries add a single moment to your life? "...
"So don't be anxious about tomorrow. God will take care of your tomorrow too. Live one day at a time."
--Matthew 6:25-27, 34 TLB

NC SPEECH TOURNAMENT

On Tuesday, February 3 we will be hosting our first intercollegiate speech tournament. This will be a small tournament but we're hoping for a good response from some of the local schools. For your enjoyment we will be opening some events to the public. Would you like to see a real college debate? How about an interpretive reading that will drive you to tears? An oratory that will cause your blood pressure to rise? A dual interpretive reading that will tickle your funnybone? Or an expository speech on one of the unknown wonders of the world? The main auditorium in the "L" Building will be open for Northwest students to see what really happens at a speech tournament. ONE REQUEST THOUGH: To keep disturbances at a minimum please come and leave only at the following times: 3:20-3:30, 4:20-4:30, 6:05-6:15, 7:05-7:15, 8:05- 8:15.

Mizue Yamada (piano) and Myrna Johnson (soprano) will be doing a joint recital on Tuesday, March 31 in the chapel at 7:30. Myrna Johnson will be accompanied by Ray Weaver. FREE!!
