BULLETIN

February 26, 1981

"Let us not become weary in doing good, for at the proper time we will reap a harvest if we do not give up. Therefore, as we have opportunity, let us do good to all people especially to those who belong to the family of believers."

Galations 6:9-10 NIV

- Tuesday, March 3: Rev. Dale Carpenter

God has been moving on campus this quarter challenging us through chapels, floor meetings, and prayer cells. Monday at 6:30 a.m. the chapel is open for prayer. This is a great change to start the week off right, reaching out to God so you can reach out to others.

W.O.M. CHAPEL this week will be a special chapel. We will have a guest from Fort Lewis to share how NC has been a blessing to them with the Servicemen's MIG. Come expecting and prepared to give to the work of the Lord.

M.S.A. Potluck - Friday night, February 27 - Come on everybody let's relax before we wind it up! Bring a main dish and dessert or vegetable and table games. 7:00-9:00 p.m. in the cafeteria.

Oh, no!!! It's the unknown D.J.!!! Listen to KCNC in the mornings for more details!!!

A.S.B. Chapel Monday morning will feature Bo Melin, a European travelled evangelist formerly with the Oral Roberts World Action Singers. He will be sharing on missions to Europe, Russia, and India. You will not want to miss this.

Anyone with pep band music should turn it in to Mr. White prior to Spring Break. Thank you.

Spring Quarter Spritual Emphasis Week will feature Dr. Ward M. Tanneburg. It is with deepest gratitude that the administration, faculty, and the students accept the participation of the Thomas F. Staley Foundation in sponsoring this event.

For those interested, we are now auditioning people for this year's Reader's Theater. We need 3 females and 3 males. Auditions will take place in Mr. French's office at 2:30-3:30 March 2-6.

The concert band is in desperate need of more instrumentalists for spring quarter. If you play an instrument and are free 2nd period Tuesdays and Thursdays, please contact Mr. White. It's not too late to register, or even add the class on an audit basis. Thank you.

Found in the Library: A MAN'S WHITE GOLD RING. DESCRIBE TO CLAIM.

Well, then, maybe you'd rather send them a hanging plant?

Attention: Please return all library books and pay all fines by March 4. Your finals and/or grades will be withheld until your fines are paid and your books are returned. Library hours during finals week will be:

March 9-10: Regular hours

The NLCAA Pacific Northwest Women's Regional Basketball Tournament is being hosted by Northwest College this Thursday through Saturday. It will be a five team tourney with games at 6 and 8 p.m. each night. NC's team is seeded second in the tournament and will be playing Multnomah (the number three seed) on Thursday night at 8 p.m. The loser of that game will play at 6 p.m. on Friday and the winner advances to the championship game at 8 p.m. Saturday. Come out to cheer for our great team--it promises to be an exciting time. Because of the expense of hosting the tourney, there will be a charge of $1 for students and $2 for adults. That's not much to pay for an evening of good entertainment.

Bookstore News! Special purchase of reference books - a big 30% off!!! Buy now and SAVE - check out the new NC sweatshirts - only $9.95.

Pray for our Speech Team - they are going to Western Washington University this weekend!

Will the person or persons who borrowed a pipe threading set, (a ratchet set with dies from 1/8" to 3/4" inclusive) please return it to the Northwest College garage.
Thank you.
