BULLETIN

March 5, 1981

"Say not, 'Why were the former days better than these?' For it is not from wisdom that you ask this."

Ecclesiastes 7:10 RSV

REMINDER: This coming Friday, March 6, is the last day to drop classes for the winter quarter.

Four-Year Graduates: If you are planning to apply for the ETDA Diploma (Evangelical Teacher Training Standard Diploma) and have not already done so PLEASE check with Celesta in the Registrar's Office immediately.

NOT RETURNING FOR SPRING QUARTER???

Have you officially terminated your enrollment with the Registrar's Office? This is a very important procedure that is easily forgotten by students.

LAST CHANCE FOR BEOG THIS YEAR

Basic Grant forms for 1980-81 are still available in the Financial Aid Office until March 15, 1981. All BEOG application forms must be post-marked by March 16, 1981 in order to be processed for this year. If you want to apply, do it now...it will soon be too late!

FINANCIAL AID NEXT YEAR: Financial Aid Forms for 1981-82 are available at the Receptionist's Desk in the Administration Building. Apply now in order to receive consideration for next year. At this point, no official word has been received regarding any drastic 'cuts' as part of President Reagan's program, but you may be wise to plan ahead by applying early. The early bird gets the worm, right?

Spring Break - March 12-18!!!

Congratulations to our Women's Basketball players for going undefeated in league play and winning the PNCC Championship. Also, special congratulations to Cheryl Girdner and Melinda Martin for being voted to the all-conference team by the opposing coaches.

A special thank you to all those who helped with the hosting of the NLCAA Women's Regional Tournament here this past weekend. Thanks also to the pep band and the fans for your support of our team. After an overtime loss to Multnomah (61-60), the gals went on to place 3rd by beating Trinity (71-50) on Friday and Puget Sound College of the Bible (65-46) on Saturday night to win the championship. Congratulations to Melinda Martin on her selection to the all-tournament team.
