BULLETIN

March 26, 1981

"Forgetting those things which are behind, and reaching forth unto those things which are before, I press toward the mark for the prize of the high calling of God in Christ Jesus."
Philippians 3:13-14

Missions 243 First Aid will begin on Monday March 30 in L-1. Come between 6:30 and 7:00 to register and get material. Bring $5 for book and material.

"No one will ever know how much is wrought in prayer." We will never really know the extent of our prayers. God honors the times we spend before Him for every need. Monday mornings between 6:30 and 7:30 the chapel is open for prayer for the needs of NC. Come and join this vital time as we reach out to God for others.

Peggy Johnson, Missionary from Africa will be speaking on Friday in WOM Chapel. Sister Johnson holds a special place in our hearts because her brother, LeRoy Johnson is one of our professors. Come prepared to receive as well as give in this chapel.

Praise God! WOM offering was $448, this brought our total to approximately $12,200. Our Faith Promise totaled over $4000 and there are more to come. God is moving as we move with Him. Thank you for your support and may the Lord continue to bless you as you give.

LOST: Orange folder with correspondence studies inside. Very important; if found return to Diana Hovis GP 320.

Karisma Publication class will meet at 1:30 on Tuesday. All those interested please attend. For more information contact Greg Holt GB 405.

Open Gym: One of our married students has volunteered to open the gym on Saturday mornings for anyone who would like to come. He'll be there from 8:00 a.m. until noon, so come on up and work it all out.

NOTE: It is against college policy for any student to teach piano lessons on campus. Such teaching should be done in one's own church or home.

Acappella and College Choir members are needed.
For College Choir, no audition is needed, the class meets on Tuesday and Thursday in the chapel at 2nd hour. For the Acappella Choir, prospective members will need to meet with Dr. Swaffield for an audition. It meets 6th hour on Tuesday and Thursday in the chapel.

Youth MIG volunteers to Echo Glen: We will be beginning to go out again. Please meet in front of Guy-Perks Hall at 5:45 p.m. Tuesday volunteers will need to see Tim Olson about changing nights. Anyone wishing to join the Youth MIG, more information will be coming.

JOB POSSIBILITY: One strong male to help with grounds around Ad/Fac Building. See Bev Johnson for details.
