BULLETIN

March 2, 1982

"Let us fix our eyes on Jesus, the author and perfecter of our faith, who for the joy set before Him endured the cross, scorning its shame, and sat down at the right hand of the throne of God. Consider Him who endured such opposition from sinful men, so that you will not grow weary and lose heart."

Hebrews 12:2-3 NIV

OREGON DISTRICT STUDENTS...It's your turn!

Ormel Chapin will be here on Wednesday, March 31 for Chapel and classroom appearances. At 6:15 p.m., he is having a steak dinner for you in the cafeteria. Reservations are required--sign up at the receptionist desk in the Administration Building. Last day to sign up--March 26. Bring your meal tickets.

FINANCIAL AID NEWS Contrary to what our financial aid brochure states, students who are "independent" in 1982 because of marriage cannot automatically be considered as "independent" of their parents if they were "dependent" in 1981, based on the federal definition. Our apologies to students who have been affected adversely by this information.

ALASKA STUDENT LOAN RECIPIENTS--This is just a reminder that all students who have received an Alaska Student Loan must maintain their Alaska residency while you are enrolled at Northwest College. You may not do the following: (1) Declare your intent to become a resident of another state; (2) Vote or register to vote as a resident of another state or community that is not in Alaska.

BOOKSTORE NEWS! BIG VALUE DAYS March 1-9. Look for the TLC coupons at the dorm reception desks and in the SUB. SAVE on V-neck sweaters--clipboards--running shorts--paperbacks and records.

Married Students don't forget the March 5 potluck at 7 p.m. in the cafeteria. Free drinks and babysitting available. We need you to be a success.

Do you want to hear some great Christian music? Do you want to spend an evening worshipping the Lord in song? A special time has been set aside on March 2 at 7:30 p.m. in the chapel for the winter SINGSPIRATION.

The High Calling . . .

If God has called you to be really like Jesus in all your spirit, He will draw you into a life of crucifixion and humility, and put on you such demands of obedience, that He will not allow you to follow other Christians, and in many ways He will seem to let other good people do things which He will not let you do.

Other Christians and ministers who seem very religious and useful may push themselves, pull wires, and work schemes to carry out their plans, but you cannot do it; and if you attempt it, you will meet with such failure and rebuke from the Lord as to make you sorely penitent.

Others can brag on themselves, on their work, on their success, on their writings, but the Holy Spirit will not allow you to do any such thing, and if you begin it, He will lead you into some deep mortification that will make you despise yourself and all your good works.

Others will be allowed to succeed in making great sums of money, or having a legacy left to them or in having luxuries, but God may supply you daily, because He wants you to have something far better than gold, and that is a helpless dependence on Him, that He may have the privilege of providing your needs day by day out of the unseen treasury.

The Lord may let others be honored, and put forward, and keep you hid away in obscurity, because He wants to produce some choice, fragrant fruit for His coming glory, which can only be produced in the shade.

God will let others be great, but keep you small. He will let others do a work for Him, and get the credit for it, but He will make you work and toil on without knowing how much you are doing; and then to make your work still more precious, He will let others get the credit for the work which you have done, and this will make your reward ten times greater when Jesus comes. The Holy Spirit will put a strict watch on you, with a jealous love, and will rebuke you for little words and feelings or for wasting your time, which other Christians never seem distressed over. So make up your mind that God is an infinite Sovereign, and has a right to do as He pleases with His own, and He will not explain to you a thousand things which may puzzle your reason in His dealings with you. God will take you at your word; and if you absolutely sell yourself to be His slave, He will wrap you up in a jealous love, and let other people say and do many things that you cannot do or say. Settle it forever, that you are to deal directly with the Holy Spirit, and that He is to have the privilege of tying your tongue, or chaining your hand, or closing your eyes, in ways that others are not dealt with. Now when you are so possessed with the living God that you are, in your secret heart, pleased and delighted over this peculiar, personal, private, jealous guardianship and management of the Holy Spirit over your life, you will have found the vestibule of heaven.

Help on income tax returns--Dale Sorensen, Accountant at NC, is available evenings and Saturdays to prepare your income tax return. Call him in Accounting, 822-8266 ext. 281 or at home evenings, 822-7375. Reasonable rates.

ATTENTION--we are now auditioning for the 1982 Northwest College Reader's Theatre. A unique script has been written by a former NC student which should be a blessing to all who hear it. If you are interested in learning about and participating in this unique form of ministry, contact Mr. French for further details. A sign up sheet is posted on his office door in the Music Center.
