BULLETIN

January 19, 1982

"Surely He hath borne our griefs and carried our sorrows; yet we did esteem Him stricken, smitten of God, and afflicted. But He was wounded for our transgressions, He was bruised for our iniquities; the chastisement of our peace was upon Him; and with His stripes we are healed. All we like sheep have gone astray; we have turned every one to his own way; and the Lord hath laid on Him the iniquity of us all."

Isaiah 53:4-6 KJV

Crowder Hall mail box keys are ready to be issued. They will be distributed on Wednesday, January 20 from 1:00 to 4:00 p.m. at the Crowder Hall reception desk.

Students - please remember that the lobby in Crowder Hall is just that - a lobby rather than a lounge. Students wishing to buzz other students should use the buzzer and then go back and wait in the Guy-Perks Lounge.

SPIRITUAL EMPHASIS WEEK SPEAKER Rev. Morris Plotts will be available for student conferences Tuesday, Thursday, and Friday of this week. Those interested should sign up at the main reception desk in the Administration Bldg.

Coming...January 29th: MAPS Representatives from the MAPS office will be on campus to present the 1982 SUMMER MAPS OPPORTUNITIES. What is MAPS? (Acronym for Mobilization and Placement Service). MAPS is a summer missionary internship-type program wherein selected students are assigned to work with and assist missionaries in various fields throughout the world. The purpose is to provide training, insight, while giving assistance and service to the missionary and to the missionary enterprise. Talk to anyone who has participated in the program, and you will be talking to an ardent supporter of the program. MAPS Representative, Evan Paul, will be the chapel speaker. Following chapel there will be opportunities for sign-ups for interviews throughout the day. If you have considered the missionary enterprise, prayerfully consider MAPS now.

PARENT'S DAY IS COMING... Feb. 5 is the banquet which will be for those who will be accompanied by their parents. They received information over the Christmas break and will be sending back to us their reservations. If you are on campus, please remember your meal ticket so that it can be punched as a usual dinner. If you are off campus, your cost will be $2 payable at the door. Your parents are encouraged to pre-register but money will be received at the door. Do come...we have a lot of fun planned for you and your parents.

The Jail Ministry will have a meeting today at 3 p.m. in the SUB. All students interested, please attend. We have important information to cover.

Please remember that students are required to pay cash for their books. Charges are provided only when the student has a credit (overpayment of account) or the books must be charged in connection with Rehab.

Any notices, posters, etc., must be first approved by the Dean of Students. Such notices should be posted on appropriate bulletin boards and should not be posted on walls, doors, and windows. Thanks for your cooperation.

Student accounts are due in full at the beginning of the quarter. Any unpaid or deferred balance is subject to an 8% carrying charge. Note: 4% will be reversed on payments made through Feb. 3. There will be no reduction in carrying charge after that date.

P.R. Tryouts - Scheduled for Thursday, Jan. 28 at 7 p.m. in the chapel. ALL interested MUST fill out an application form and return it to the P.R. Dept. no later than Friday, Jan. 15. Each individual team member must fill out the application. Forms are available at the reception desk.

Ladies Prayer and Share has a new name for the New Year, "New Wine Fellowship" We will still meet every Tuesday at 7 p.m. in Firs #24. Our renewal really came Fall '81, but we're just now changing the name to match our spirit. We know the Lord Jesus has been meeting with us in our fellowship times in a refreshing way. Join us!

WOM FOOD FAIR: It's coming!! This Saturday, the 23rd of January at 7 p.m., the WOM Food Fair will be going in full swing with food goodies from other countries, entertainment and fun times with your fellow students. Come join us all there...you won't want to miss it!

Maranatha Sounds Schedule change:
The Feb. 28 service with Kenmore has been switched to Woodinville at the Cottage Brook Assembly. Please make these changes on your schedule. There will not be a service at Kenmore Assembly.

Snoqualmie Valley Assembly of God offers ministry opportunity for C.E. majors. Pastor Dan Crawford would like to have help in organizing and leading Sunday School as well as Children's Church ministries. Contact Mr. Werner for more details.

Cedar Park Assembly would like to involve students who attend there in children's ministries Sundays and Wednesdays on a rotating basis. If you are interested, please contact Mr. Werner.

Ministry Opportunity for student interested in C.E. of Children, Pastor Jim Hill of Neighborhood Christian Center, Bremerton, has two options available: Leadership of Junior Children's Church, Royal Rangers and Missionettes. Or Teacher Training and Promotion of Educational Staff and Program. Either positions would offer the possibility of preaching on Sunday nights occasionally. He would prefer a husband and wife team with some musical ability. A nice cottage is available for you to stay over the weekends. Please call 377-7292 or talk to Mr. Werner.

The Chapel is open at 6:30 a.m. all week for those who wish to come early and pray. Come also and pray evenings in the Chapel at 6:00 p.m.

KCNC: Yes, you too can be involved in Christian broadcasting. KCNC has open time slots and welcomes anyone interested to come in and learn to be a real radio D.J. Radio is an important tool - learn how to use it. No experience is necessary.
