Parent's Weekend: On Feb. 5 & 6, NC is having their annual Parent's Weekend activities: Friday--Men and Women's Basketball and a 6:00 p.m. banquet dinner. Saturday--Men and Women's Basketball. Their cost is $6 for the whole weekend..that means 4 basketball games and one banquet dinner...WOW!!! Snoqualmie Valley Assembly of God offers ministry opportunity for C.E. majors. Pastor Dan Crawford would like to have help in organizing and leading Sunday School as well as Children's Church ministries. Contact Mr. Werner for more details.

Cedar Park Assembly would like to involve students who attend there in children's ministries Sundays and Wednesdays on a rotating basis. If you are interested, please contact Mr. Werner.

Ministry Opportunity for student interested in C.E. of Children, Pastor Jim Hill of Neighborhood Christian Center, Bremerton, has two options available: Leadership of Junior Children's Church, Royal Rangers and Missionettes. Or Teacher Training and Promotion of Educational Staff and Program. Either positions would offer the possibility of preaching on Sunday nights occasionally. He would prefer a husband and wife team with some musical ability. A nice cottage is available for you to stay over the weekends. Please call 377-7292 or talk to Mr. Werner.

Responsible people needed to organize and lead a Children's Church from 11-12 a.m., Sundays, at Cottage Lake Presbyterian Church. Vans will leave Guy-Perks at 9:15 on Sunday mornings and return after the morning service. If you plan to ride the van, please contact Steve Benintendi at 822-8568 or Steve Williams at 827-4000. Coming...January 29th: MAPS Representatives from the MAPS office will be on campus to present the 1982 SUMMER MAPS OPPORTUNITIES. What is MAPS? (Acronym for Mobilization and Placement Service). MAPS is a summer missionary internship-type program wherein selected students are assigned to work with and assist missionaries in various fields throughout the world. The purpose is to provide training, insight, while giving assistance and service to the missionary and to the missionary enterprise. Talk to anyone who has participated in the program, and you will be talking to an ardent supporter of the program. MAPS Representative, Evan Paul, will be the chapel speaker. Following chapel there will be opportunities for sign-ups for interviews throughout the day. If you have considered the missionary enterprise, prayerfully consider MAPS now.

Like David of old, the NC Speech team's own Mark "David" Gilbert slew some Goliaths at one of the largest (9th) speech tournament in the nation. Not satisfied with a fourth place finish in the 24 school event at Pacific Luthern University Mark went to the second part of the Tournament at University of Puget Sound and took a first place trophy in interpretive reading. Never to be outdone the College debate team (Steve Garcia and Bud "Prince Charles" Henthorn) won 4 out of 6 debate rounds. This coming weekend the team will travel to Seattle Pacific University.
