DRAMA CLUB MEETING!!! Thursday, January 28 from 4:30-5:30 p.m. in H-107. Come expecting a good time.

After having our faith in the Lord built up by Rev. Morris Plotts last week, let's continue in the spirit of worship as we set aside a special day for prayer and fasting. The AMS, AWS, and MSA invite the entire student body and faculty to join with them in prayer and fasting for the needs of our College, our friends, our sister school in Africa, etc., on Friday, January 29. We encourage you to set aside part or all of your day this Friday and pray and fast according to your ability and custom. God's mighty hand is moved to action when His people pray! We will have a worship and praise service with communion at 7:30 p.m. Friday night in the Chapel.

On Monday, Feb. 8 some representatives from Youth Outreach, Vancouver, WA will be speaking in two morning classes. Social Problems (O. Clark) 7:30-8:20 and Juvenile Delinquency (W. Rutledge) 8:30-9:20. If you are awake at that time and would care to hear about working with troubled youth in group homes, feel free to join them. Incidentally, two of the speakers are NC alumni, Bob Ritchey and Jana Haggard - come and say hello.

There are fifteen tickets available for the Chris Christian - Mustard Seed Faith Concert at People's Church in Tacoma on Saturday, Jan. 30 available in the Bookstore. These tickets are available to NC students for $3 each. Seating is first come first served.
