NEXT QUARTER ... THE O.T. HISTORICAL BOOKS CLASS-

(Bi 207) is meeting in F-4. Classes will start on schedule on Thursday though Dr. Milard will not be back from the Flying Seminar until Monday.

CHRISTIAN SERVICE REPORTS (Blue Form):

If you did not receive a blue Christian Service Report form in chapel on Monday, March 5th, you can pick this up at the Receptionist's desk. This form is passed out once per quarter in chapel. It is vital that you fill this out and have it returned to the Dean of Students Office as soon as possible. The three Christian Service reports are transferred at the end of the year to a yearly report and put in the student's personal file in the Registrar's office for further reference, etc. Thank you!

"THE MISSIONARY OF OZ"...

is coming your way!!! April 12, 13, and 14 at 7:30 p.m. in the L-buildin
You won't want to miss it!

HAVE YOU RECEIVED THE CALL?

Dear outstanding library books:

Have you felt the call -- a certain rustling of the leaves -- to return to the library stacks? Please come back by March 9, or your users will be fined and won't be able to pick up their grades. Check in!

Tuesday-Ping Pong Tournament Scheduled:

As part of the Campus Day activities a ping pong tournament championship will be finalized. You are urged to sign up at the receptionist's desk if you are interested in participating. Competition will begin Saturday, March 10th. You must sign up by Thursday, March 8th.

Thursday-Ping Pong Tournament Deadline:

If you want to be a part of the Campus Day championship ping pong tournament you must have signed up by today, Thursday, March 8th at the receptionist's desk. This is open for guys and gals. Competition begins Saturday, March 10th.

COMMUNITY SERVICE MIG NEEDS YOU!

We are on our way to the San Juan Islands April 6,7, and 8 to build a chapel for the YMCA. We need 25 guys to complete this project. Last year was a great time of fellowship and food. It's free and a great opportunity to minister. Sign up in the Dean of Students Office by March 9th or talk to Pat Sweet in P-413.

REGARDING WINTER ACCOUNT AND FINAL EXAMINATIONS:

If your winter account will not be Paid In Full by March 9, a promissory note must be signed to be cleared to take examinations. Make an appointment with the receptionist to sign a note with the Business Office.

REGARDING SPRING QUARTER . . .

Students should review their finances before entering classes in the spring quarter, to be sure they have adequate finances to cover.

1. Students enrolling and attending spring quarter must have their account paid in full or will not be permitted to take final examinations.
2. The College cannot co-sign for students for summer loans or promissory notes, or any unpaid spring balance (Board of Director's action)
3. Students must anticipate and take the initiative to arrange for their finances (parents, relatives, bank, loans, etc.).
4. If a student cannot arrange for adequate finances for spring quarter, they are encouraged to seek full-time employment for the spring and summer months to assure adequate finances for fall quarter. (It is not too early to apply for Federal Aid for Fall 1984.)
5. Any student, registered for spring, but not returning, should officially withdraw at the Office of the Registrar.
