BULLETIN

"There is deceit in the hearts of those who plot evil, but joy for those who promote peace."

Proverbs 12:20

DEAR NC STUDENTS...

A great big thank you for helping us make this year's Campus Day one of the best. Much of this year's success is because of the positive way you welcomed our guests. I appreciate your willingness to open your dorm rooms and for all the extra help in the many activities. Special thanks to the ASB leaders, tour guides, traffic controllers, registration helpers, resident assistants, cafeteria workers, choir members, summer ministry teams and on and on the list goes. I am proud to be associated with each of you. You're appreciated!

Skip Bennett
Dir. of Public Relations

DEAR STUDENT,

The mailman will not deliver any papers, tests, etc. to the student's boxes unless the student includes his room or box number on the top of the paper. Papers without box numbers can be claimed at the Receptionist's desk. Thank you!

ATTENTION ALL STUDENTS ENROLLED IN RADIO WORKSHOP:

We will hold an organizational meeting Wednesday, April 4th at 2:30 in Darby Swanson's office. Everyone is expected to attend.

CHILDREN'S MIG:

There will be a Children's MIG meeting at 4:30 Wednesday, April 4th in the SUB. We will be discussing the service for the Children's Orthopedic Hospital April 8th. All those interested please come.

ASB FULL COUNCIL MEMBERS:

Don't forget the meeting tomorrow morning, April 4, in the cafeteria at 6:45 a.m.

SUMMER YOUTH MINISTRY INTERNSHIP

Othello Assembly of God has an excellent opportunity for a summer youth internship. The church will provide housing, love offering and help arrange part-time employment. Pastor Kruger and several of the Board of Deacons will conduct interviews April 12th. Job description and interview sign up sheet is on bulletin board behind Fee-7.

JOB OPPORTUNITIES:

The City of Seattle currently has a number of State Work Study employment positions available for eligible students. If you are a freshman or sophomore and are currently receiving financial aid, you may be eligible. If interested, please contact the financial aid office.

CHAPEL - MONDAY, APRIL 9th!!! - FREDA KEET

Freda Keet will be our chapel guest on Monday, April 9. Michael Kerem, director of the Radio/Television branch of the Israeli Foreign Ministry, has called her "the most exciting woman in all our nation." She has served as a newscaster on Kol Israel (The voice of Israel) radio for the past 17 years. Her daily newscasts are heard throughout the world.

Miss Keet's journalistic background is extensive and impressive. She was born in Rhodesia (now Zimbabwe), Africa. Her family later migrated to England where she received her formal education. After graduating from the Royal Academy of Dramatic Arts in London she received her on-the-air apprenticeship at the famed BBC. Following her graduation, she moved to Israel, fulfilling her greatest dream in life.

Her 17 years with Kol Israel have not been without dangers or excitement. During the 1967 and 1973 wars, Miss Keet reported daily from the front lines in the Golan Heights, the Sinai, and the battle for Jerusalem led by Moshe Dayan.

She was recently featured in two books, The Danger Zone, and The Most Dangerous Man in the World, written by Dan Betzer of Revivaltime.

STUDENTS PLEASE NOTICE! - IMPORTANT !!!

After 4:00 p.m., the office is closed and unless you've made prior arrangements the doors will remain closed and no one will be let in. Thanks for your cooperation.

WANT TO SHARE A RIDE?

I am wondering if anyone from the South end (Renton, Kent or farther South) wants to share rides. For details contact Tom Judd at Receptionist's mail or message phones 854-2234 or 255-5321.
