CAMPUS

BULLETIN

May 22, 1984

"Have mercy on me, O God, have mercy on me, for in you my soul takes refuge. I will take refuge in the shadow of your wings until the disaster has passed."

Psalm 57:1

THE EVANGELISM MIG ...

will be going out Friday night to downtown Seattle and the University district. This will be the last time the evangelism MTG will be going out, so there is still time to get some experience sharing the gospel. We meet in the SUB at 6:15 for prayer and worship and then we go. Afterwards we will have ice-cream together.

See you there!

MISSING:

A watch, three rings, and a pair of ear-rings were left at the Judo tournament last Thursday night in the gym. The watch is a silver Timex with a stretch band; the rings were all silver - one with black coral, and one a Kelso High class ring with a garnet in it. If you happened to pick them up, please bring them to Janelle Thurston or call 364-1375. Thank you!

FURNISHED STUDIO APARTMENT...

in exchange for domestic work (females only)
- 12 hours/week. In the summer, light gardening (watering of plants, etc.). Call Mrs. Tall at 881-2970. (While out, I usually leave a recording machine on, so please leave a message.

DEAR GRADUATE ...

In the last minute rush to get ready for graduation, please don't forget to return your library books and to pay all fines. We need to have your records cleared by May 24, 1984. Thanks for your cooperation. We've enjoyed serving you in your time here at Northwest. May the Lord bless you in your future plans. Best wishes!
