STUDENTS AND FORMER STUDENTS: Ministry Opportunities. Northwest Teen Challenge has need for staff members to live-in (male or female), and be involved in a counseling/training ministry, with room and board and a small salary provided. We are in need of persons who could teach basic classes who would give us at least one quarter (these could be current students). We are also looking for a married couple to direct a street witnessing/counseling ministry, which would be a salaried position. Contact Rev. Dan Womack, (206) 324-3560 (Seattle area).

MSA (Married Students Association) Womens Fellowship: We are having a get together for all the married women students and the wives of the married men students, for a fellowship. Newcomers, off-campus and on-campus ladies are all invited. This is a time of sharing, singing, treats and all that other good stuff. October 14, 1985 at 7:00 pm. Meeting place (TBA) in next Student Bulletin.

WELCOME, LEADERS!!

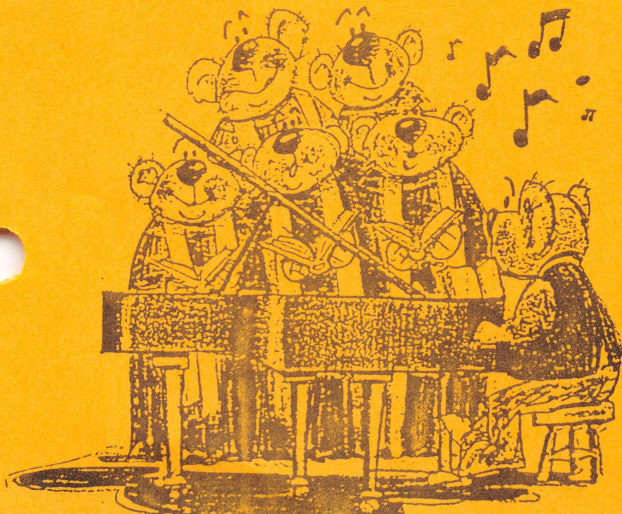

It's good to have you back. We love You! Tim Knapp, Elaine Bauman, Vickie Pettis, Dean Diana and Dean Mick.

YOU TOO CAN WIN A TROPHY !

Students experienced or interested in drama, debate or public speaking contests are invited to participate in Northwest College's Intercollegiate Speech Team. Last year Northwest College stacked up against the best Colleges and Universities in the entire Northwest. Mandy Scott, Eric Thompson and others consistently won awards at tournaments in Washington, Oregon and California, eventually qualifying for Nationals. Mandy gained national recognition for Northwest College by placing 20th in the nation in oratory. Join the Speech Team and develop valuable experience in public speaking for future ministries. Come to the organizational meetings, every Monday starting September 30, 3:00 pm, Amundsen Music Center Rm #2. Contact Professor Gary Gillespie for information.

BOOK STORE: Thank you for not asking to charge books at the bookstore since policy indicates that books must be secured on a cash basis. The only exception would be a student who has a credit (overpayment) on their account.

MUSIC: All Students are invited to try out for our two traveling choirs, King's Choralons and Maranatha Sounds, on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, September 23, 24, 25. Sign-up sheets are posted in the Music Center.
