BOOKSTORE NEWS: Save a big 30% on Reference Books!!! Pick up your order catalogs at the Bookstore or the Reception Desk in the Administration building. Orders must be placed by November 7. Now is the time to Build your Library at great savings.

ATTENTION GRADUATES! There are a number of you who have not yet come in to the Registrar's Office for a graduation audit review. Please do so right away! Thank you.

ESSAY CONTEST: The Karisma Annual Staff would very much like to honor two special NC students in our 1987 yearbook. You could be one of them. All you have to do is write us an essay. What about it, that's easy...just describe creatively the way you have matured and developed in character over the past one year; how through your experience with people, God, and life in general you have learned to better reflect the character of Christ in your life. If your essay is one of the two best, we will print it. Length: 250 - 300 words typed. Deadline: November 21, 1986. Submit to: Reception desk.

KCNC DJ Training: Good news! Good news! Your campus radio station is ready to roll. All DJs are required to come and learn about the basic art and skill of running a program at the station Nov. 8, (Sat.) at 8 am. You need to sign up with Rick Gray or Daniel Lui.

PASTORAL MINISTRIES LECTURE SERIES - November 18-20, 1986.

(Lecture series is open and free to all students).

Theme: "Foundations of Spiritual Ministry" This theme will be addressed in each of the chapel services.

Guest Speaker: Rev. George Smith, former senior pastor of Evergreen Christian Center in Olympia, and now senior pastor of the 1st Assembly in North Hollywood, California.

Workshop: Tuesday, November 18 from 2:30 - 5:30 pm in F-7.

Topics of Workshop: 1) Worship Ministry, 2) Preaching Ministry, 3) Altar Ministry.

Interviews: Rev. Smith will be available in Conference #2 on Thursday, Nov. 20, from 10:45 am to 12:00 pm.

SPEECH TEAM REPORT: Congratulations to Paul York for becoming a finalist in informative speaking at the Lewis and Clark College Forensics Tournament in Portland last weekend. Paul's speech on the human brain won him recognition as one of the top six speakers in the event. 25 colleges and Universities participated in the contest. Other NC students who competed were: Dave Gribble, Marci Hanson, Doug Montegue, Tim Rosendahl, Pam Pulley and Jerry Earl. The next meet is at lower Columbia on Nov. 14.

Student Ministries Opportunities: Please be aware of the large bulletin board in the Amundsen Music Center with various ministry opportunities posted on it. (Location: Enter the lower level doors to the Chapel. Turn right through the double glass doors. Bulletin board is on the wall after entering doors). We have a number of openings in local churches for: 1) youth ministry, 2) music, 3) Sunday school teachers, 4) children's workers (Royal Rangers and Missionettes), and 5) Miscellaneous.

This Thursday in the cafeteria!! Student Leadership Service Dinner! On Nov. 6 the student leaders at NC will be serving the rest of the student body at dinner time. Come for fun and a relaxing time. Steak is the menu so get ready!

CONGRATULATIONS SOCCER TEAM!!! Our NC Eagles soccer team was victorious in their match this past Saturday in the Seahawk's Bubble. They defeated Multnomah School of the Bible by the score of 2-0.

Soccer Tournament: on Nov. 14-15 here at NC in the Seahawk's Bubble. 2 games will be played Friday at 2pm and Saturday will be the consolation and championship matches. Time TBA. Make sure to make plans to attend!!

ATTENTION: Operation RAP (the Servicemen's Ministry Group) there will be meeting this Saturday Nov. 8, 5:30 pm in SUB. For orientation and prayer.

Thank you to everyone who participated in the Halloween Prayer Day, we believe God's power shone brighter on the day as a result of our prayers.

1st Freshman Class Meeting - 11/10 from 7-8 pm in the Learning Center.

All Alaska District Students please meet immediately after chapel on Thursday, Nov. 6, outside the chapel for a group picture - for annual.

We want to encourage students to keep up with their Bible Reading. Extra Bible Reading Guides are in the Dean of Students Office. If you didn't get one it is not too late to start where we are.
