A great BIG THANKS to all of those who helped in the Change the World School of Prayer, Feb. 28. It wouldn't have been the success it was without YOUR help! Dr. Braddy.

Fast and Pray for the Muslim World. Come and join us on Fridays 3rd, 4th and 5th periods to intercede for the Muslim World. Overflow - Chapel!

David Cozart, NC student currently studying in Hebrew University in Jerusalem sent an extremely interesting tape on life in Israel and on his personal experiences there. Those of you who know David, or those of you who are simply interested in happenings in Israel will want to check this tape out from the Library where it is temporarily placed for checkout. For anyone wanting to write to David, his address appears on the backside of the tape.

March 8 - 29, 1987, 10 am - 9 pm daily admission free, Seattle Center Forum - "AUSCHWITZ" A Crime Against Mankind. An exhibition of 135 photographic panels, 80 artifacts and Holocaust documents, from the date of 1940 to its liberation in 1945. The show is divided into the following sections: Nazi Creed, Final Solution, Transports, Nazi Camps, Scenes of martyrdom and Gas Chambers. Sponsored by the Jewish Federation of greater Seattle, the Washington State Jewish Historical Society and the Seattle Center. An opportunity for people to learn about the history of Auschwitz.

The MAPS office is in need of many more summer volunteers for 1987. It is not too late to send an application if you had an interview last semester with Lamar Headley or Evan Paul. If you had no interview, you are still encouraged to prayerfully consider the list of openings and your possible involvement. Applications are available in the Admissions Office, or contact the MAPS Office. If you were interviewed, but do not plan to take an assignment, you should notify the MAPS office so your assignment can be given to someone else.

Financial Aid News
