WORSHIP TEAM

Professor Hobson is putting together a worship team for chapel. He is interested in hearing from anyone who is interested and has musical abilities such as playing the piano, organ or other instruments. Vocalists are also needed. Please let him know of your interest by writing a note indicating the contribution you can make. Be sure to include your box and telephone number so he can get in contact with you.

Surprise Care Package for Professor Randolph! If you miss Professor Randolph, join us in making this package something special. There will be a box in the Bookstore to put letters and stuff in. We have two weeks to get it together. If you don't know what to get him ask Mrs. Randolph; she has all the answers. Be creative, fun and most of all encouraging. Remember he's in our place right now.
