CHAPEL ATTENDANCE

As you've probably noticed, we're using a new system for taking chapel attendance this year. When you enter the chapel, you'll need to go to the section your i.d. card chapel number, (the red one on the back), falls into. There should be a section leader standing against the wall, holding a blue notebook. You will need to show the section leader your i.d. number and you will be marked as present. Then you can go sit anywhere in your section. If you come in late, you'll need to see Terrie or Wendy, from the Dean of Students Office, in the back of the Chapel afterwards.

Surprise Care Package for Professor Randolph! If you miss Professor Randolph, join us in making this package something special. There will be a box in the Bookstore to put letters and stuff in. We have two weeks to get it together. If you don't know what to get him ask Mrs. Randolph; she has all the answers. Be creative, fun and most of all encouraging. Remember he's in our place right now. Instead of giving tests he's taking them. Make this something special. September 22nd is the last day.
