PLEASE RETURN ALL ITEMS THAT HAVE BEEN CHECKED OUT FROM THE HEALTH CENTER BY APRIL 29th. THANK'S!!

YES VIRGINIA, THERE IS LIFE AFTER FINALS! It's called Summer School at NC. The atmosphere is relaxed, the classes are small. Sound good? Take a look at the syllabus for Bible 424: Ezra, Nehemiah and the Post-Exilic Prophets. You'll learn about Judah's return from exile, and the people who experienced it. The message of God's covenant restoration, and the hope it gave them in time of trouble will challenge and inspire you. (A sample syllabus is available from Professor Hobson in B-2)

THERE IS A NEW OPPORTUNITY TO GO IN THE FLYING SEMINAR AT A BARGAIN PRICE - MAY 6 - 17. If there are as few as seven (7) persons interested! Tour includes 3 nights in Rome and 6 in Israel. For one of the College's finest itineraries, contact the President's Office for further information.

FEAR OF PUBLIC SPEAKING RANKED ABOVE DEATH: Studies show that most people fear speaking in public more than death itself. This can be a problem for students required to take the basic speech class for college graduation. But wait - there is a solution. Sign up for the Summer Semester Speech 121 Course on May 6 - 17. This course will be small - 8 or 10 students (compared to 25 other semesters) and it only lasts two weeks. Get this required course over with in two weeks in beautiful sunny Kirkland and enjoy the small class size. Go to the Registrars Office and sign up for Speech 121 today and then RELAX!

IMMEDIATE NEED! America today is the world's fifth largest missionfield with 175 million people still needing salvation. Missions has an immediate need for evangelists to reach the lost. Perhaps God is speaking to you about the ministry of full-time evangelism. PMIN/MISS 470 "Evangelism for the Decade of Harvest" will help you prepare for this open door. (Prof. Malcolm)
