There They Go Again!

The debate team of Ryan Doughty and Jacob Witt won Second place at the Portland State University Forensics tournament on Jan. 17 - 18. Twelve colleges and universities attended the event. After defeating Willamette University in the semi-final round, Ryan and Jacob faced Alaska University in finals--which the whole tournament watched in the auditorium. NC lost on a two to one decision of the three judges. The topic was: "This house would ration the old to nurture the young." In addition to winning second place in debate, NC won second place in team sweepstakes for overall winning points. Congratulations to the following students who won other awards: 1st place Open Impromptu and finalist in Open Extemp--Ryan; 1st place Novice Impromptu and 3rd place Novice Extemp--Josh Brittingham; 2nd place Novice Prose reading and finalist Drama--Lydia Homan; 2nd place Novice Prose--Doug Loyd; 3rd place Novice Impromptu--Troy Anderson.

BOUNDARIES

VIDEO SERIES by MINIETH-MEIR WEST

MONDAYS

January 27, February 3, 10, 24
 7:30 p.m. to 9:30 p.m.
 in Room F-7

Can I set limits and still be a loving person? How do I answer someone who wants my time, love, energy or money? Why is it difficult for me to say no? Why do I feel guilty or afraid when I consider setting boundaries? Having clear boundaries is essential to a healthy, balanced lifestyle. In this seminar you will learn about a simple concept that can change your life - healthy boundaries. It's the ability to mark off your life in such a way that you multiply your love for others and minimize the problems you face. - Sponsored by Northwest Counseling and Career Development Center
