FORENSICS TOURNAMENT -

Eleven students competed at the Lewis and Clark College Tournament in Portland. Ryan Doughty won first place Junior Extemp and fourth place senior impromptu (competing against 54 other students). Roger Altizer was sixth place in senior impromptu. AmyJoy Munson was a finalist in Informative and David Thompson was a finalist in Novice impromptu. David Thompson was ranked 10th best novice speaker, Jayson Graves was ninth best novice speaker and Angela Halverson was eighth best novice speaker. Thirty-three colleges and universities attended the event.

LIBRARY AUTOMATION UPDATE:

The library personnel have completed about two-thirds of the retrospective conversion project, which is making a computer readable record for each of the books owned. Next year when all of the card catalog is converted to computer tapes, they will be sent to special companies to check for errors and create bar-codes for each book. We plan to put the bar-codes on the collection during the Summer of 1997 with our new system up and running in the Fall of 1997.
