- He has spoken in many overseas theological training schools for the Assemblies of God including : The Far East Advanced School of Theological and Bethel Bible Institute in Manila; Central Bible Institute in Tokyo; and schools in Seoul, Korea; Hong Kong; Calcutta, India; Katoomba, Australia; Bangkok, Thailand; and Singapore
- Has ministered in Bible conferences in the United States, Northwest Territories, Canada, Australia, Finland, New Zealand and shared in crusades in Guyana and Trinidad. Has been featured speaker in 21 camp meetings of the Assemblies of God and six district councils.
- Dr. Hurst' overseas trips have taken him to China, where he visited with an elderly former Assemblies of God pastor and assessed the China house church movement, as well as the government sanctioned three self church; to Seoul, Korea, where he preached many times (including a week long youth crusade and a week long missions convention) in the Full Gospel Central Church, the world's largest with 700,000 members; to Bangkok, where he ministered in the Central Church and the Bible School for which he broke ground three years earlier; to Rangoon, Myanmar (Burma) where he spoke in burgeoning Central assembly of that city and the Bible School, eastern Europe including Austria, Hungary, Yugoslavia and the Soviet Union, to Singapore many times where he preaches and consults with the 4,000 constituents Calvary Charismatic Centre and to the Philippines where he consults with the Asia Pacific Bible Schools Regional Office.

- From his trips to the Asia Pacific region he has come home talking of "the moving of God's Spirit around the world... the growth of the church... the China challenge and the one answer to that challenge - the Holy Spirit, Himself... the one work of God - worldwide... and the divine initiative in building Christ's church

Current Ministries and Immediate Past

Dr. Hurst, currently is the President of the Asia Theological Centre For Evangelism and Missions (ATCEM). He makes five trips to Singapore each year to give guidance to the school, schedule classes and engage faculty. One of the distinguishing factor of the school is the many foreign (mostly Americans) professors and pastors brought to it for two weeks block lectureship - usually ten to twelve each year. Dr. Hurst also is currently engaged as Consultant to the Asia Pacific Education Office of the Assemblies of God and to the Calvary Charismatic Centre of Singapore. He served as Chairman of the Capital Campaign for the Assemblies of God Theological Seminary, Springfield, MO; a campaign which raised six million dollars to erect permanent facilities and endow scholarships. He is a member of the Accreditation Commission of the Asia Pacific Theological Association. He also conducts seminars for Boards of Deacons and ministers in camps, councils, missions conventions and conferences.
