

pastor's workshop in counseling

CONSCIENCE GUILT
GRACE

Sponsored by NORTHWEST COLLEGE
P. O. BOX 579
KIRKLAND, WA 98033

November 11, 1975

For More Information
Call 822-8266

2:00 — Welcome and Introduction

Conscience — A psychological and Biblical model. What is it? How does it function? What are the implications for pastoral counseling? (J. V. Rozell)

3:00-3:00 Discussion

30

~~3:45~~ — Fellowship Time

4:00

~~3:15~~ — Guilt — Neurotic and real guilt. What does the Bible say about them? What is the effect of guilt spiritually, psychologically, and physically? (J. V. Rozell and M. O. Whitaker)

00-5:30

~~5:15~~ — Discussion with both speakers

6:00 — Buffet Dinner

7:15 — Grace — Therapeutic value of grace as demonstrated in the life and ministry of Jesus. (M. O. Whitaker)

8:15 — Discussion with both speakers

This workshop is sponsored by the Counseling Department of Northwest College in an effort to assist the student and the pastor in his personal growth and counseling ministry.

Cost is $10.00 per person
12.50 per couple

For reservations, return the enclosed card, write, or call Northwest College. Wives welcome!

Chaplain Milton O. Whitaker

Chaplain Whitaker is the Chaplain of the Veterans Administration Hospital in Seattle, Washington and has been involved in intensive study of death and the dying patient as well as training counselors to work in this area. His credentials include the following:

B.S. University of California at Berkeley in 1950. B.D. from Berkeley Baptist Divinity School in 1957. Post graduate work in Clinical Pastoral Education and Pastoral Psychology at the Institute of Religion, Houston, Texas, and the Graduate Theological Union, Berkeley, California, and a year's clinical residency in Pastoral Psychology and Pastoral Counseling at the V.A. Hospital, Martinez, California. Graduate work in Pastoral and Marital and Family Counseling at various institutes and seminars.

Dr. Jack V. Rozell

Served as the Dean of Students at Northwest College of the Assemblies of God, Kirkland, Washington, 1967-72. Part-time instructor in Pastoral Counseling and Psychology at Southern California College of the Assemblies of God, 1972-73. Now serves as Associate Professor of Pastoral Care on faculty of Northwest College and Director of Counseling. Minister of Counseling, Neighborhood Church, Bellevue, Washington.

B.A. in Psychology, Whitworth College, 1959. Master of Divinity, Fuller Theological Seminary, Pasadena, California, 1964. Master in Education, Seattle University, Seattle, Washington 1970. Doctor of Ministry, Fuller Theological Seminary, Pasadena, California, 1973.