

Who are two of the most important people in the Bible? (Besides God. And Jesus Christ.)

How about Moses. And Paul.

Notice anything they had in common?

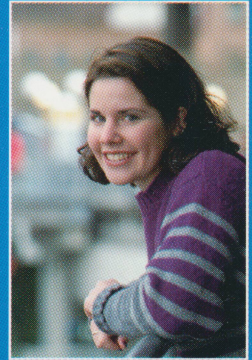

How about the best education that was available.

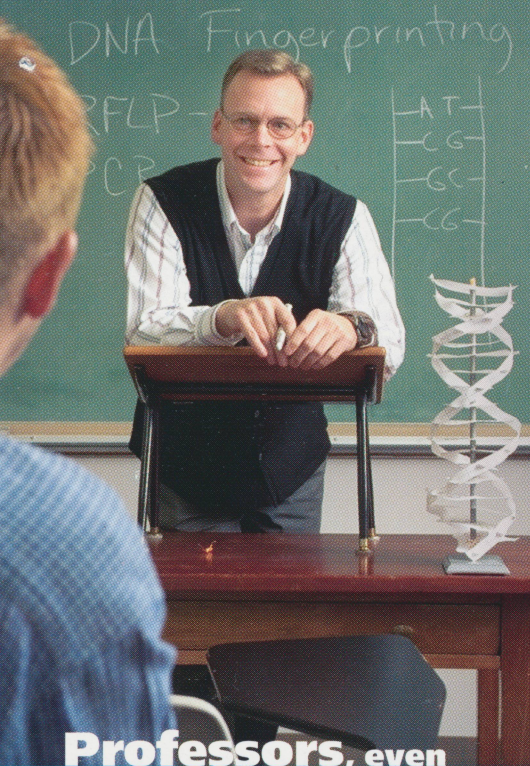

Life isn't a choice between faith, emotion and intellect.

It's about using everything that God gave you. Including your mind.

Learning how to think might be the most important thing you'll ever learn how to do.

Professors, even science profs like Dr. Eric Steinkamp, start each class with prayer.

Northwest College is big enough to offer me the choice of courses to achieve my goals, but small enough so I can get personal attention from my profs... and make lots of friends with the other students.

At Northwest College, you'll le

Cutting-edge technology is a real benefit here.

Northwest has access to all the technological avenues you will need to help you in your studies. The computer resources available on campus are first rate.

Learn everything you want to know

When you're challenged and excited about what you're learning, even the library is a fun place.

Dr. Deborah White is a professor in the Division of Education.

Getting in a study group and bouncing ideas off your friends is a great way to learn!

And you'll get a good start on

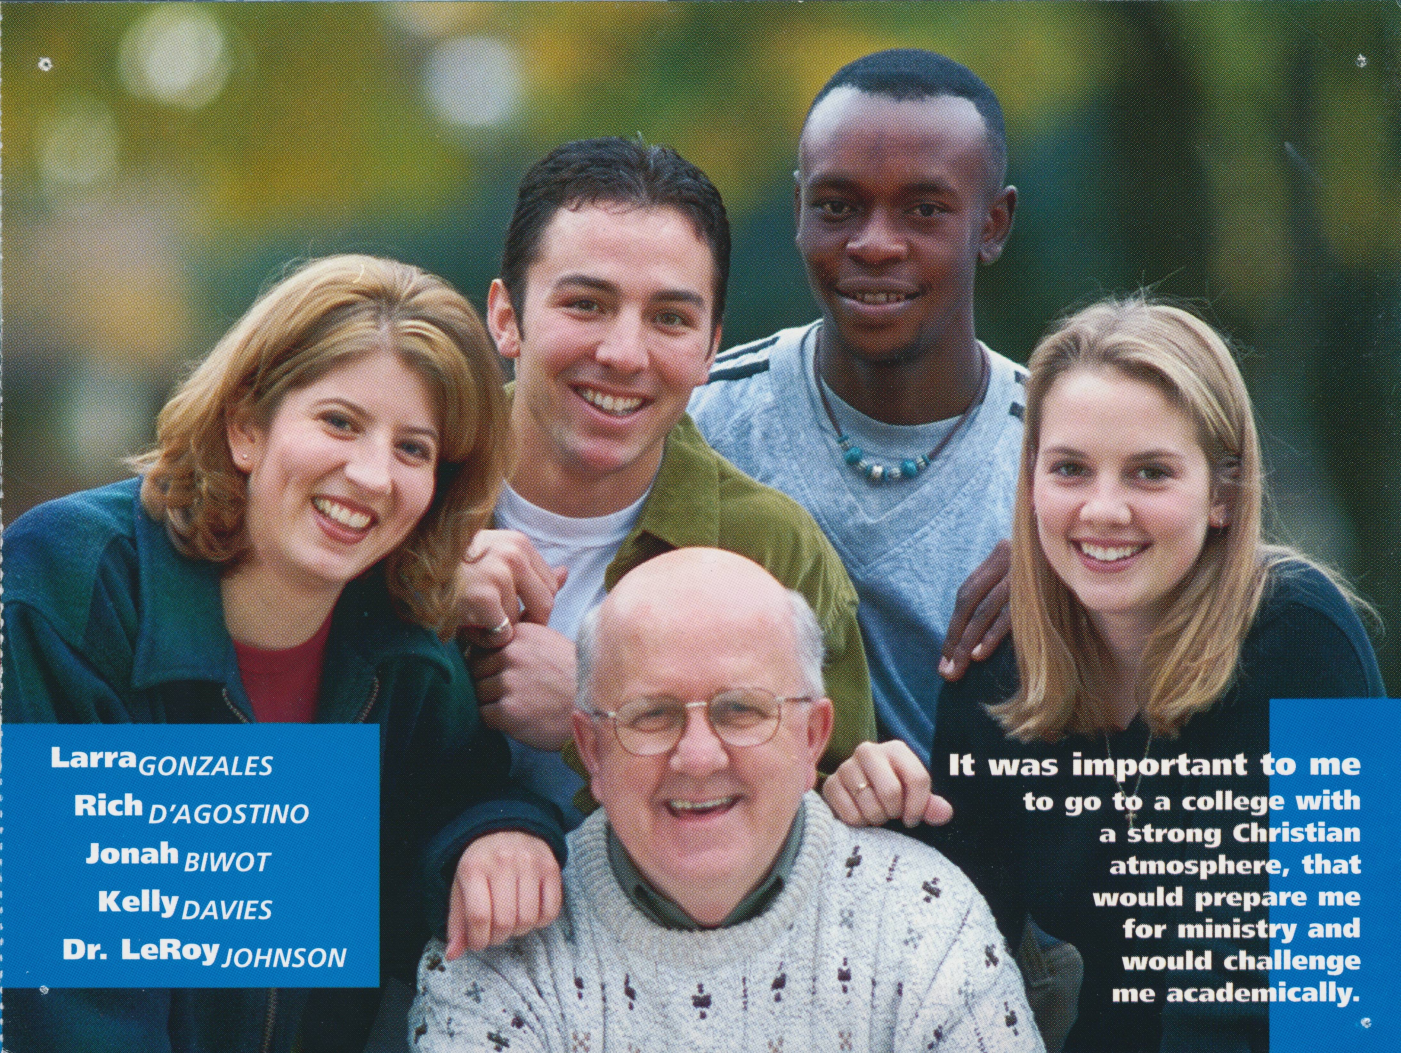

Spend enough time

in the library, studying hard, and you can go anywhere you want to, in a career, in ministry, or in graduate school.

This is a great college because it has everything – great profs, great students, a great location, and a great commitment to God!

everything you need to know.

to go to a college with a strong Christian atmosphere, that would prepare me
for ministry and would challenge
me academically.
