G. I. APPROVED?

Yes. NC is fully accredited and approved for training under the current G. I. Bill.

WHERE?

NC is located within fifteen minutes driving distance of downtown Seattle. Its location, east of Lake Washington in the City of Kirkland, combines the rustic peacefulness of suburban living with the cultural, educational and employment opportunities of a busy metropolis.

ADMISSION REQUIREMENTS

Applicants are selectively admitted on the basis of Christian experience, character and scholastic aptitude. Applicants for admission must (1) complete the college admission application form and (2) request official transcripts of previous schooling to be sent to the Admissions office. Pre-admission tests are not required.

FINANCIAL AID

Aid is awarded in the form of any one or combination of the following: Scholarships, grants, loans and employment. Aid given is based on NEED. Information and assistance in financial planning may be obtained by contacting the Financial Aids Office. An employment service is operated to assist students in securing part-time employment in the area or at the college.

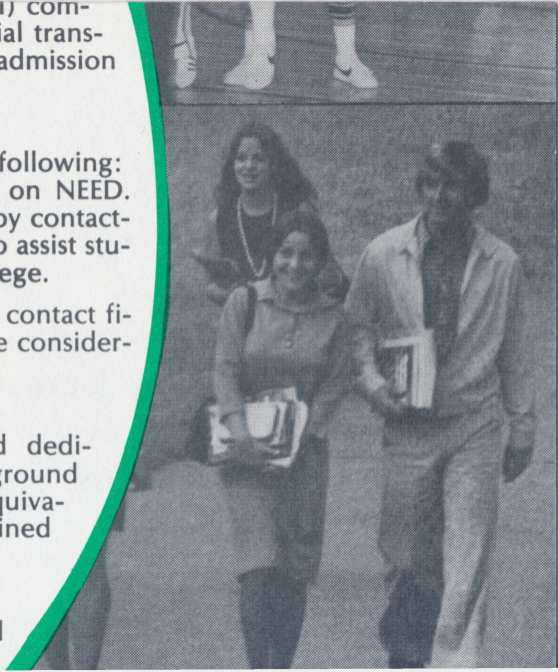

Financial Aid Applicants: Complete application for admission and contact financial aids office at earliest convenience to ensure fullest possible consideration and assistance.

FACULTY

The faculty at NC is composed of professionally trained and dedicated Christian men and women. The minimum educational background for full-time teaching faculty is the Master's degree or its equivalent. A significant number of the teaching faculty have attained doctoral level.

WHY NORTHWEST?

Several hundred students attend NC from across America and from several foreign countries each year. Its vital spiritual emphasis in the chapel, in the classroom, in social life, in the residence hall, in sports and cultural life makes NC distinctive. NC believes in the individual. It seeks to provide an atmosphere in which the individual may expand his horizons of intellect and of spirit.
