And Can It Be

– Charles Wesley

Verse One

And can it be that I should gain An int'rest in the Savior's blood?
Died He for me, who caused His pain?
For me, who Him to death pursued? Amazing love!
How can it be that Thou, my God shouldst die for me?

Refrain

Amazing love! How can it be that Thou, my God, shouldst die for me!

Verse Two

He left His Father's throne above, So free, so infinite His grace!
Emptied Himself of all but love, And bled for Adam's helpless race!
'Tis mercy all, immense and free,
For, O my God, it found out me.

Refrain

Amazing love! How can it be that Thou, my God, shouldst die for me!

Verse Three

Long my imprisoned spirit lay, fast bound in sin and nature's night.
Thine eye diffused a quick'ning ray:
I woke the dungeon flamed with light! My chains fell off,
my heart was free,
I rose, went forth, and followed Thee.

Refrain

Amazing love! How can it be that Thou, my God, shouldst die for me!

Verse Four

No condemnation now I dread:
Jesus, and all in Him, is mine! Alive in Him, my living Head,
And clothed in righteousness divine, Bold I approach th'eternal throne,
And claim the crown, thru Christ my own.

Refrain

Amazing love! How can it be that Thou, my God, shouldst die for me!

Worship Chorus*

You Are My King

– Billy Foote

I'm forgiven, because You were forsaken;
I'm accepted, You were condemned.
I'm alive and well, Your Spirit lives within me,
Because You died and rose again.

Amazing Love, how can it be,
That You, my King, should die for me.
Amazing love, I know it's true,
And it's my joy to honor You,
In all I do, I honor you.

Hymn Medley

Majesty, How Great Thou Art, Shout To the Lord

– Emmanuel Fonte

Majesty

– Jack Hayford

Majesty, worship His majesty. Unto Jesus be all glory, honor, and praise.
Majesty, kingdom authority flow from His throne unto His own;
His anthem raise.

So exalt, lift up on high the name of Jesus. Magnify, come glorify Christ Jesus, the King. Majesty, worship His majesty; Jesus who died, now glorified, King of all kings.

How Great Thou Art

– Stuart K. Hine

O Lord my God, when I in awesome wonder
Consider all the worlds Thy hands have made,
I see the stars, I hear the rolling thunder,
Thy pow'r thro'out the universe displayed
Then sings my soul, my Savior God, to Thee;
How great Thou art, how great Thou art!
Then sings my soul, my Savior God, to Thee:
How great Thou art, how great Thou art!

Shout to the Lord

– Darlene Zschech

My Jesus, my Savior, Lord there is none like You,
All of my days, I want to praise, the wonders of Your might love.
My comfort, my shelter, Tower of refuge and strength,
Let every breath, all that I am, never cease to worship You.

Shout to the Lord all the earth, let us sing,
Power and majesty, praise to the King.
Mountains bow down and the seas will roar at the sound of Your Name.
I sing for joy at the work of Your hands,
Forever I'll love You, forever I'll stand,
Nothing compares to the promise I have in You.

Commencement Address

Dr. Deborah Wilds

Deborah Wilds currently serves as a program officer for education at the Bill and Melinda Gates Foundation, where her responsibilities include serving as the Foundation's liaison to the Gates Millennium Scholars Program, the Gates Cambridge Scholars, and the Washington State Achievers Program and developing other college access related programs for low-income and students of color. She is currently responsible for the early college initiative to create 70 new early college high schools across the country.

Prior to assuming her current position, Dr. Wilds served as the Deputy Director of the American Council on Education's (ACE) Office of Minorities in Higher Education, in Washington, DC. At the Council she was responsible for developing strategies and programmatic activities designed to increase and advance minority and women's leadership and achievement in postsecondary institutions. She also served as a Senior Research Associate in the Division of Policy Analysis and Research at the ACE.

Dr. Wilds has conducted extensive research in the area of college access for low-income students and students of color, and was the senior author of the Annual Status Report on Minorities in Higher Education. Prior to coming to the Council, she was the Co-Founder and Director of New Era Education, an independent school and pre-school located in Baltimore, Maryland.

Dr. Wilds was awarded her Ph.D. in Education Policy, Planning, and Administration at the University of Maryland at College Park. She received her M.S. degree in Education Administration from Howard University and her B.S. degree from the California State University, San Diego, in Speech Pathology and Audiology.

Let Light Shine Out

– Williams and Saari

Verse One

Let light shine out from the great Northwest; Go tell the Savior's grace;
From college halls to lands afar, Bring hope to every race.

Refrain

Lord, bless Thy work at N.C.; We turn our hearts to Thee;
Oh, thrust us out and lead us on, To promised victory!

Verse Two

God's Word approved in the lives of those, Who've trained at N.C.;
Thy Spirit sought for pow'r and truth, 'Til all His glory see.

Recognitions and Honors

Sigma Chi Pi

Sigma Chi Pi is an honor society established for graduates of endorsed Assemblies of God Colleges. The name means "Diligent Christian Leaders," taken from Romans 12:8 "...one who leads, with diligence." The faculty of Northwest College choose their selections from graduates and alumni exhibiting outstanding academic scholarship, approved Christian character and recognizable achievement in leadership, service, or vocation.

Alumni Honorees

Dena Cambra – Following a storied career at Northwest College in volleyball, basketball, academics, student government, music, and Residence Life staff, Dena Cambra graduated in 1993 with a B.A. in Behavioral Science. Having traveled to Costa Rica as an All-American on the National Christian College Athletic Association (NCCAA) women's basketball mission trip prior to her senior year, she was led to a position at fellow-NCCAA institution Baptist Bible College in Clarks Summit, Penn., where she continues to serve as a full-time graphic designer and volunteer assistant women's basketball coach. She is currently working towards a Master of Science in Health and Physical Education, and is planning a missions trip this July. She has helped lead teams from BBC and NCCAA All-Americans on sports mission trips to Costa Rica, Peru, and the Dominican Republic. Dena is also quick to volunteer her time and talents to her local church.

Dena is the youngest of four children. All of her siblings reside in Boise, Idaho, as well as her parents, who serve as Home Missions Pastors and founders of Teen Challenge of Idaho.

John Fox completed an Associate of Arts degree in 1981 and graduated with his Bachelor of Arts degree in Youth Ministries in 1983. He became an ordained minister with the Assemblies of God in 1985. He has served in four churches as an Associate Pastor and at Northwest College as Public Relations Director. He currently is President of the Northwest College Alumni Association and President of Around the World Yoyo Entertainment Company. The company speaks to over 100,000 students each year in public and private school assembly programs. He also spends much of his time speaking in churches across the nation. John shared this thought, "If I have done anything well in life, it is simply the reflection of what God has done in me."

John and his wife, Susan, (NC class of 1987) have been married 19 years and have three children: Alyssa, 9, Amanda, 7, and Austin, 3.

Psi Chi Honor Society

Psi Chi is the National Honor Society in Psychology, founded in 1929 at Yale University. The purpose of Psi Chi is to encourage, stimulate, and maintain excellence in scholarship of the individual members, in all fields, particularly in psychology, and to advance the science of psychology. Students are required to be in the top 35% of their class academically. The graduating seniors to be honored are:

Undergraduate Students

The Pageantry of Academic Regalia

The traditional academic attire originated in the middle ages. It began as the regular garb of scholars, whether cleric or lay. In the unheated buildings and lecture halls of the day, the robes, hoods and caps were very practical wear.

The GOWN, whether it developed from clerical or civilian dress, was useful outerwear. In addition, it provided a uniform dress that served to equalize class and wealth distinctions in the community of scholars.

Today, in the United States, the gown is customarily black, though it may be one of the colors of the school (especially of universities following a European model). The wearing of the gown open or closed, the sleeve style, and added trim serve to distinguish the degree levels of the wearers. Bachelor gowns are very simple and are worn closed, while masters' gowns are frequently worn open at the front, sometimes with the arms exposed below the elbows. The doctoral gown commonly has trim down the front and three velvet bars on the sleeves, in black or in the color of the degree field. The sleeve is bell shaped, close-fitting at the wrist.

The HOOD originated as a practical head covering. In modern times it is strictly decorative and ceremonial. The hood is commonly worn by those holding master's or doctoral degrees and differs in length according to the degree (three and one-half feet, and four feet). The hoods are lined with the colors of the conferring institution, and trimmed with an edging (of three inches or five inches width) in the color of the degree field. The act of "hooding" is part of the traditional ceremony of conferral of advanced degrees.

The "Oxford" CAP or MORTARBOARD possibly developed as a ceremonial combination of a close fitting indoor cap and a soft square-topped academic cap for outdoor wear. (Some schools use a type of beret or tam for doctoral degrees.) The cap is topped by a button holding a tassel which may be black or the color of the degree field (gold for a doctoral degree in some schools).

The tassel is customarily worn on the left by degree holders, thus the bachelor's degree candidates wear the tassel on the right until the symbolic "moving of the tassel" at a climactic point in the graduation ceremony.

The faculty of Northwest College hold degrees in a variety of fields identifiable from the following commonly used color scheme:

Business	Drab	Music	Pink
Economics	Copper	Nursing	Salmon
Education	Light Blue	Oratory (Speech)	Silver Gray
Fine Arts	Brown	Philosophy.....	Dark Blue
Humanities	White	Physical Education....	Sage Green
Journalism	Crimson	Science	Golden Yellow
Law	Purple	Social Work	Citron
Library Science	Lemon	Theology.....	Scarlet
Medicine	Green

The College MACE is the symbol of authority of the faculty and is carried in the Commencement Processional by the official representative of the faculty, the Faculty Marshal.

The central emblem of the mace is the SEAL, which embodies the history, character and purpose of the College. The College Seal pictured on the cover of the Graduation Program contains nine elements: the legal name of the institution; its year of founding; the shield of faith; the centrality of the cross; the lamp of learning; the open Bible; and the small cross and crown denoting the temporal and eternal aspects of the Christian life; and underlying the crest is a ribbon in which are inscribed the first words of the COLLEGE ALMA MATER, "let light shine out."
