

Northwest University's Student Magazine

TALON

HOME CAMPUS LIFE OUTSIDE THE BUBBLE ARTS & ENTERTAINMENT OPINION AUDIO/VISUAL LETTERS TO THE EDITOR ABOUT US
COMMENTARY CONTEST THE SCREECH PODCAST

by northwest7
on November 21, 2016
under Arts & Entertainment
∞ Permalink

HOW TO IMPROV YOUR WEEK

Posted: Sunday, September 14, 2014 1:58 pm

By Joanna Sowers

End Scene Improv holds the ticket. Every Thursday night at 9pm in Millard Hall, our NU troupe of Improv students show up to entertain and make you laugh. Boy, will they make you laugh.

End Scene Improv holds a legacy here. For many years, it has acted as the highlight of the week for many students. The goal of the Improv team is to share their love of comedy with the people of NU in an appropriate, yet hilarious, and engaging manner.

Each week they dress up to match each night's theme. Marlene Pierce, an Improv veteran, commented, "We...want to have some awesome theme nights and specialty shows. We did a midnight Improv on Halloween last year, and it was a huge success. Students can definitely expect some new and exciting things from the team this year."

Students can also expect candy, randomly thrown at them throughout the night. This is a pretty sweet deal. Also, a $5 gift card will be given to whoever proposes the best game situation during the show!

This is a group of very talented students who faithfully entertain for you. It truly is one of the most fun experiences NU has to offer! FYI, if you want to get involved, auditions to join End Scene Improv are on Sunday, 5:30, in Millard Hall. Give it a whirl!

© THE TALON