NU Christmas Party!

Join the NU Community in the HSC this Friday, December 10 from 9-11p for a fun time playing Wii, pictures with Santa, ornament decorating, and more! The event is free. Come dressed up in your festive gear and join us for an NU Christmas!

Fall Graduate Chapel

On Friday, December 10 there will be one Chapel service to accommodate for the Fall Graduate Chapel. Fall 2010 graduates will be honored at this special Chapel. President Castleberry will be speaking and we will hear some wonderful Christmas music from the Concert Choir. Please come and honor these special students who will be leaving us to pursue their careers. A Commissioning prayer will be prayed for the students. Communion will also be served. To see the modified class schedule, click here.

Holiday Closures

The final meal in the Caf before the Christmas holiday will be dinner on Friday, December 17. Dinner will be shortened to 5-6p.

The EFC will be closed starting Saturday, December 18. It will reopen January 10.

Residence halls and student apartments close on Saturday, December 18 at 5pm. If you currently live in these areas and need somewhere to stay over the Christmas holidays, please contact Housing at housing@northwestu.edu or x5334. Applications for Campus Interim Housing are due December 8.

Joyful Jazz Sweet & Clear

Friday, December 10 at 7:30p, the NU Jazz Band and Synergy will be performing their annual Christmas concert in Butterfield Chapel. Tickets are available at the bookstore or at the door. Contact music@northwestu.edu or 425.889.5268 for more information.

Snow Procedures

As you know, Kirkland and the greater Seattle area have already experienced an early snow storm this year. In the event of further inclement weather, the University has procedures in place to help keep the important facilities and residential buildings accessible to the campus community. For more information on snow procedures, click here.

Office for Mac

Office 2011 for Mac is now available to all faculty, staff and students in the NU bookstore. Price is $20 plus tax. Pick up a copy before Christmas break!
