Readings and Reflections

Readings and Reflections is a biannual event hosted by the Hurst Library. Presenters from the NU community may cover any scholarly topic, from current events to history or poetry. This spring, the speaker is Dr. Kara Heinrichs, talking about how to handle conflict in a positive way. Join us on February 3 at 3:30p in HSC 104 for an insightful presentation and discussion!

Local Artist Showcase

Please stop by the lower floor of the HSC and enjoy a display of work by April Richardson, a local artist who works in printmaking. The work will be on display through the end of March. On February 1 from 3-4p, April will be giving a demonstration on the process of printmaking. Please come out and support this local artist!

Interview Seminar

Attention Decision Makers: How effective are you when interviewing candidates for positions? Will you be interviewing for a job soon? Chances are, you need to improve your interviewing skills. You're invited to attend the Stand Out interviewing seminar with Dr. Wynn Allen this Saturday, January 22. Faculty, staff, and students are all welcome. Register here: <http://seminarregistration.wikispaces.com>.

Design Competition

The NACCAP (North American Coalition for Christian Admissions Professionals) is searching for outstanding student designers who are looking for an opportunity to build their portfolio and get their work in print. NACCAP is once again sponsoring a student design competition for promotional materials for the Fall 2011 National Christian College Fairs (NCCF). The winning entry will receive a $500 cash award and their work in print. NACCAP reserves the right to use the design in whole or in part. See <http://www.naccap.org/news.asp?ID=138> for more information including deadlines, specifics and contact information. Deadline to enter is March 14, 2011.

In The Loop Schedule

From now on In The Loop will be published weekly on Thursdays. If you have an event, picture, or other information to submit, please do so by Wednesdays at 5p to Paula Wetzel at paula.wetzel@northwestu.edu.
