GPChat and Chocolate

All NU women are invited for a time of honest Q & A with a panel of some fabulous and godly ladies. You provide the questions, we provide the chocolate.

Submit questions about ANYTHING through campus mail to "Rachel Klas, Student Development or by e-mail: rachel.klas@northwestu.edu.

This event will be February 7 at 7:30p in Perks Lounge.

Readings and Reflections

Readings and Reflections is a biannual event hosted by the Hurst Library. Presenters from the NU community may cover any scholarly topic, from current events to history or poetry. This spring, the speaker is Dr. Kara Heinrichs, talking about how to handle conflict in a positive way. Join us on February 3 at 3:30p in HSC 104 for an insightful presentation and discussion!

Faith in Humanities Conference

The Alpha Lambda Kappa Chapter of Sigma Tau Delta: International English Honor Society in participation with the College of Arts and Sciences, the Political Science Department, and the Pacific Rim Centre bring you the 5th Annual Faith in the Humanities Conference on January 31 and February 1, 2011. The conference consists of student and faculty academic and creative presentations and faculty works in progress. Presentations cover diverse topics ranging from biblical apocalyptic literature to John Milton's Paradise Lost. The Faith in the Humanities Conference is a place to highlight our God-given academic and artistic talents; it is also a time for students, faculty, and friends of the university to fellowship, to listen, and to learn.

This year, the keynote speaker will be current White House Correspondent David Brody. David Brody is an Emmy-winning veteran journalist who has worked for Fox News, CNN, NPR, and MSNBC, among others, and who also happens to be a Christian. He will join us on Monday, January 31 from 7:00-8:30p.

Logos Bible Software

On Tuesday, February 8 from 2-4p in HSC104, Logos Bible Software will be on campus performing a demonstration of their software. Logos can help you study God's Word and help you take your Bible study further. With it's user-friendly technology, Logos can enhance your daily devotions, biblical and theological research, and much more.
