New NUSG Senate Chair

This past Monday, October 4, the Senate elected senior Heather Edin to the position of NUSG Senate Chair. Heather now serves on your team of elected NUSG Executive Officers alongside Carl Erickson, Kristi Henderson, Taylor Martin, and Matthew Moroni and a host of excellent senators, event coordinators, and SAB members. Desiring to "facilitate opportunities for students to voice their concerns," Heather is looking forward to leaving a positive mark on NU in her service to students their year!

Caf Survey

Pioneer College Caterers is conducting their bi-annual satisfaction survey on Friday, October 8th at lunch in the Caf. This is another opportunity to provide us with feedback on our food and service to you. Honest and open input is a huge help to us, as we strive to serve you better and meet your needs. Thank you in advance!

Flu Shots Available!

A partial order of flu vaccine has arrived. This seasonal vaccine has the H1N1 (swine) added to the mix this year. This is available 11a-3p from Health Services beginning 10.07.10. Cost is $15 per vaccination. If you have questions, contact Jean Clark at jean.clark@northwestu.edu or 425.889.5284. Health Services is located adjacent to Crowder Hall Lobby.

Caf and EFC Closures

During university holidays and closures, the EFC and Cafeteria may be closed or on modified schedules. Calendars outlining these schedule changes can be found on the EFC page and Caf page on Eagle.
