

IN THE LOOP | 12.8.13

What in the Loop?! Guess and Win!

Where on campus can you find the image below, and what in the world is it? (Yep — name that plant!) Be the first to email the right answer, and win $5 to spend at the Aerie!

Congratulations to Patricia Zurfluh!

She immediately replied that last week's image was of a cement ball which is part of the sign off of 108th when you enter campus. Great job Patricia!

And just a hint... Winning guesses have all come in during the first hour. :) But don't let that stop you from trying later.

Midnight Breakfast | 12.9.13, 10:00 pm

Traditional students, it's that time again! Time to appease your fear of tests with bacon. Randomized tests done at county fairs all say that bacon works (for anything). Come on out to the Caf on Monday, December 9 (the night before finals) at 10 pm for a delicious "midnight" breakfast served by your devoted faculty and staff. Prizes, carbs, bacon, friends, and watching faculty work... what more could you want before that really stressful test (or two, or five)? Coffee is free. No, wait, it's all free. Bring your friends. Ditch your books. See you there.

In The Loop is published on Sunday afternoons by Student Development.
