In The Loop | 1.19.14

What in the Loop?! Guess and Win!

In what hidden corner of the campus can you find the little owl below? Be the first to email the answer, and win $5 to spend at the Aerie!

(No staff or faculty can win this week – sorry!)

Congratulations to Amanda Alison!

She won the most difficult "What in the Loop" of the year: the arbutus unedo (also called a strawberry tree), at the southwest corner of the tennis courts, just along the parking area. Good work, Amanda!!

Return Applications to Rice Hall- Room 8

Applications Due January 22nd 2014

For Reality | 1.23.14 | 7 pm | The Chapel

For Reality is a one-night-only event. Our mission is to educate and expose the students of Northwest University about the injustices that exist in the greater Seattle area and propel them to mission. We have partnered with eight local non-profits, including The Genesis Project, World Vision, and Seattle's Union Gospel Mission.

Students will get a chance to see some of NU's most talented artists perform an artistic expression of what each organization does. Acts will highlight issues that include human trafficking, abortion, un-adopted foster children, and homelessness.

Table Talk | 1.27.14 | 5.27 pm | The Caf

Table Talk returns! We will start off hearing from Alison & Jarrett Bradley (Alison is the AC of GPC) about their dating days, what they've learned about relationships and their encouragement for those who want to get married. We hope to see you in the Caf on Monday, January 27th at 5:27pm!

Northwest University and Bellevue Presbyterian Church are co-sponsoring The Justice Conference simulcast event February 21-22. For more information please visit: <http://thejusticeconference.com>.
