You Are Cordially Invited

The Northwest University Concert Choir, joined by Coro Amici and the Kirkland Civic Orchestra, presents "Christmas Traditions." Now in its sixth season, this established concert celebrates the traditions of Christmas, featuring new carol arrangements and traditional selections by Howard Helvey, Dan Forrest, John Rutter, and more, including a few traditional sing-a-longs.

The evening will include special music performed by pianist Mizue Fells and organist Jo Ann Stremler, conducted by William Owen.

Event Details

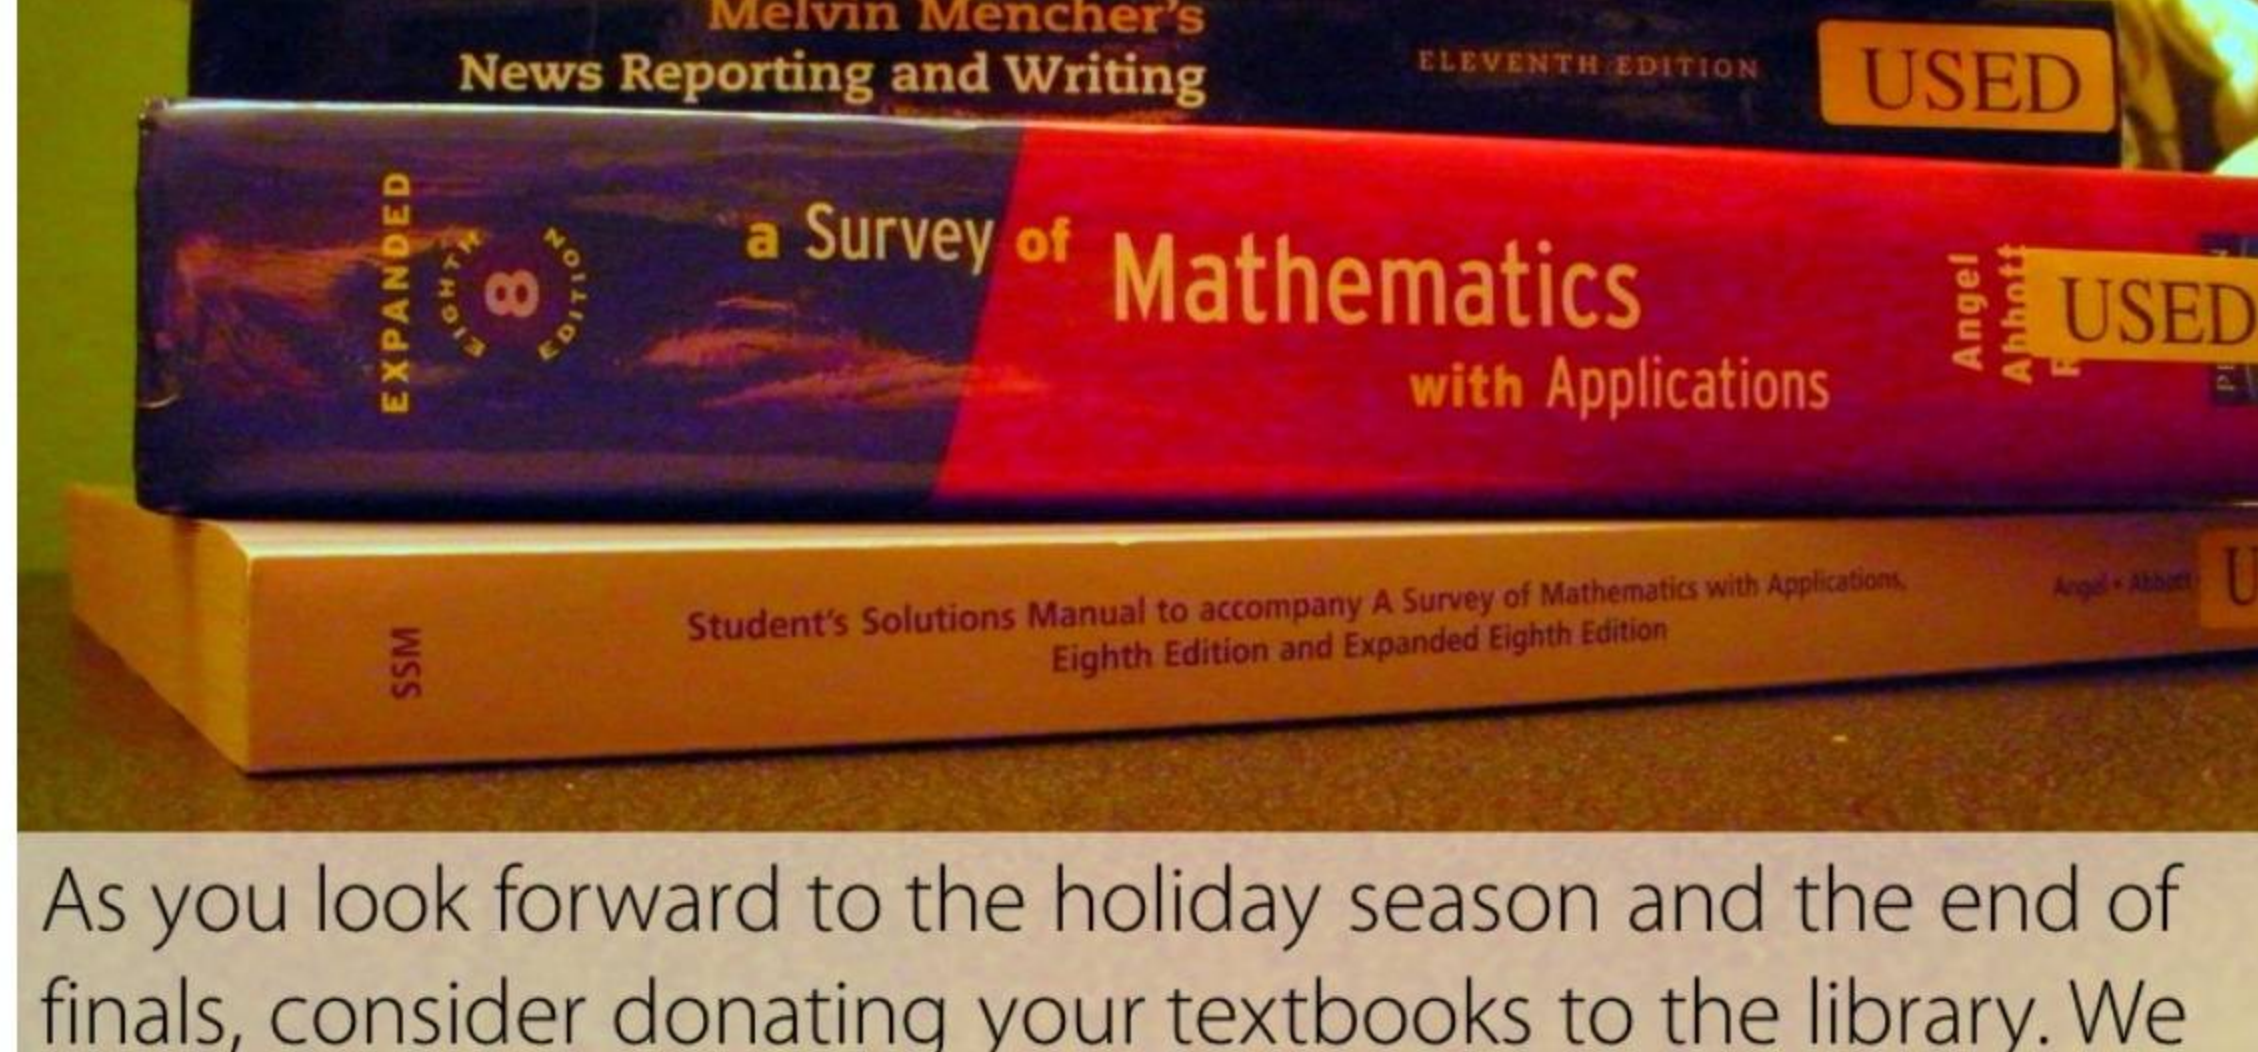

Where: Benaroya Hall, 200 University St, Seattle, WA 98101

When: Tuesday, December 9, 2014 at 7:30 p.m.

Tickets: Start at $14 and are available through Northwest University or the Benaroya Hall Ticket Office.

LIBRARY TEXTBOOK DRIVE

As you look forward to the holiday season and the end of finals, consider donating your textbooks to the library. We are working to build a collection of textbooks for student use, but we need your help. We can only purchase some of the required textbooks each semester, so help out your fellow students and donate your textbooks to the library!

Donations can be dropped off at the library front desk.
