For Reality

For Reality's mission is to educate and expose the students of Northwest University to the injustices that exist locally, and propel them to mission. Watch some of NU's most talented artists perform an artistic expression of what six well-known non-profits do in the greater Seattle area.

Northwest Friday

Interested in hosting a student overnight? We have a Northwest Friday this week and some of our visiting students may still need to be assigned a host. If you are available and willing to host on either Thursday or Friday night, please email heather.shulke@northwestu.edu.

Also, the visitors will be on-campus all day, so if you see someone walking around with an NU lanyard and nametag, please stop, say hello and help them feel welcome. Thank you!

Dare to Be Conference

You can continue signing up in the Campus Ministries office or before and after chapel!
