

IN THE LOOP | 2.14.13

Seattle Centurions Conference | February 16

"Seeking the Common Good: Biblical Principles for Social and Economic Shalom"

Hosted by Northwest University and Seattle Centurions

Dr. Jay Richards and William Mattox will lay out a biblical response to some of the economic, social and moral problems that confront us today. Dr. Gary Newbill, former Dean of our School of Education, will be a part of a panel discussion about the role of Christians in the field of education.

Register today at: www.northwestu.edu/seattlecenturions

Calendar Items

February

- 14: Valentine's Day
- 16: Seattle Centurions Conference
- :: Women's Basketball 5:30p
- :: Men's Basketball 7p
- 18: President's Day: NU closed
- 22-23: Roomies

Motor Vehicle Policy Updates

Updates have been made to NU's motor vehicle policy in order to accommodate the new My Parking vehicle registration system. These changes will take effect on Monday, February 18th, and include updates to both the policy and fee schedule. All community members are encouraged to read the new policy here. And don't forget to use the new convenient online tool, My Parking, to register your vehicle!

Roomies | February 22-23

Roomies

is almost here! It's time for the ladies to take the men for an evening of hanging out. Get all your questions answered here!

LADIES ASK HIM ♡ February 22nd-23rd
MORE DETAILS ON "THE PLACE" (NUSG WEBSITE)

February Student Health 101

Read great articles, get healthy, and enter to win $1,000!

- Capturing Creativity: How to Engage Your Brain Outside the Classroom
- How To Get More From Your Core
- Solo & Satisfied: Being Single in a Relationship World
- Using Technology to Maximize Your Time
- And more

Click here now to start reading!

In The Loop is published on Thursday afternoons by Student Development.

Want your event or photograph featured in an upcoming In The Loop?
Contact Student Development for consideration.