Special Thanks to:

Dad and Mama for financially supporting me through this "fine" education! experience among many other adventures. I've finally reached "your" educational goal.....Now can I get married???

Cousin Wendy for giving so much of your time to help me with the invitations, posters, programs and so much more. I've loved spending so much time with you and "using" you for your talents.

Recital Participants for all of your hours spent on rehearsals and your efforts for making this a special evening. I appreciate your commitment very much.

Anne Woods for taking the time to put the invitation, poster and program information on the computer. They all turned out great.

Terry White and Andy Hatton for helping put the order of the program together and for helping arrange Arise and Sing. Terry, thanks for the brass parts on Great is the Lord.

Doc Swaffield for not only your years of instruction and help in conducting, but for all of your advice and support for this recital.

Northwest College Ladies Fellowship for putting on the reception after the recital. I appreciate it very much.
