

Dear Friends,

We had an exciting, whirlwind first week of school! As familiar faces returned to campus, and new faces joined our community, I saw many people demonstrating the traits I love about Northwest University: People encouraging one another in their faith, offering a helping hand, learning together, and having fun. I am so grateful to God that He continues to build us into an empowering and joyful community – and I am so thankful for each and every unique soul that has stepped onto this campus.

If you already feel overwhelmed by the things on your plate, just pray a simple prayer today: “Lord, I feel overwhelmed about...Help me to trust you and take this one day at a time.” He hears you! You can also text your requests to 206.486.4656, so our community can support you and pray for you.

Scripture of the Week: “The Lord is my shepherd; I have all that I need. He lets me rest in green meadows; he leads me beside peaceful streams. He renews my strength...” (from Psalm 23, NLT)

This week, we are kicking off our BEGINNING Apologetics Series, focused on answering the questions of our faith.

If you missed the introduction video, watch it here.

Monday, September 7 | No chapel; school closed for Labor Day!

Wednesday, September 9 | Dr. Castleberry, 10:00 and 11:20AM in Butterfield Chapel – Introduction to BEGINNING Apologetics Series

Thursday, September 10 | Dr. Frank Turek, 7:00PM in Butterfield Chapel – “Does God Exist?”

Friday, September 11 | Dr. Frank Turek, 10:00 and 11:20AM in Butterfield Chapel – “Does Truth Exist?”

You do not want to miss hearing Dr. Frank Turek! He is a world-renowned speaker, author, debater, and radio/television host, who has wrestled with some of the biggest questions of Christianity. Wherever you are in your faith journey, come and hear what Dr. Turek has to say about the existence of God and truth. Feel free to invite others!

In your service,

Pastor Phil
