Welcome Back!

I hope you had a great break! Wow, I can't believe it is already 2011! As you take on a brand new year, I encourage you to set the bar high for both your academic achievements and your spiritual discipline. I truly believe 2011 is going to be one of our best years yet!

Next week in Chapel

In honor of Martin Luther King day, the University will be closed on Monday, January 17th.

Pursuit will not meet that evening.

Wednesday, we will have the honor of hearing from Casey Hamar, consultant at Right Management who will speak on the topic of "Time Management."

Friday, I will begin the "Hot Topic" series and speak on one of the topics submitted by you. I am looking forward to a great week!

Spring Faith Challenge

Our challenge this semester includes reading scripture 10 minutes a day, praying for 5 minutes, and focusing more on caring. Reading plan bookmarks are still available in the Campus Ministries office. I hope you choose to take part in this challenge with us!

Choralons

The 110 voice worship choir will begin their ministry this weekend by making their way to Vancouver and Centralia, Washington. Please pray for safe travels and that hearts will be open

Prayer

Attached is our weekly prayer list. Many prayer requests are already beginning to come in but as we start this semester refreshed and encouraged, let's believe for those that are in need of a touch from the Lord.
