

Dear NU Family,

Welcome to a fresh new week! I pray that you will enjoy today’s Labor Day holiday and that God will provide you with everything you need in body, soul, and spirit for the week ahead.

Following this Wednesday’s Student Leader chapel, we are beginning our first chapel series of the semester, delving into the times that God has initiated a binding, committed covenant relationship with humanity throughout history, and what that means for us today. We will hear from President Castleberry, followed by our own College of Ministry faculty for the next two weeks.

“Don’t worry about anything; instead, pray about everything. Tell God what you need, and thank him for all he has done. Then you will experience God’s peace, which exceeds anything we can understand. His peace will guard your hearts and minds as you live in Christ Jesus.” Philippians 4:6-7 (NLT)

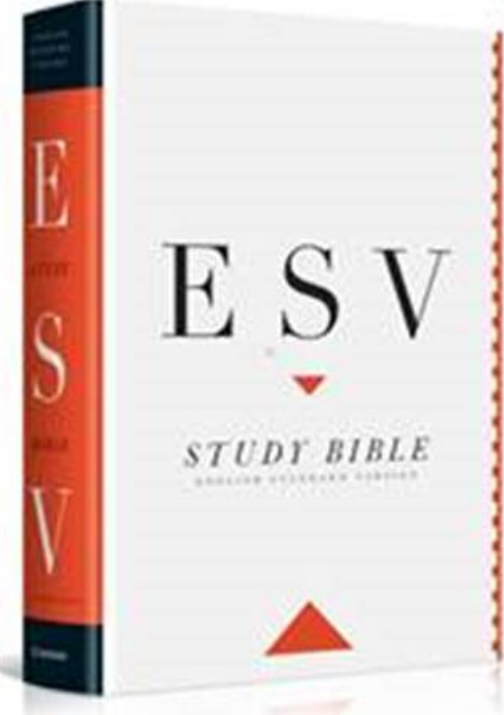

If you are interested in starting a Life Group, applications are due to the Campus Ministries office by Friday, September 9. Information and applications are available on Eagle.

A limited number of The Songs of Jesus devotionals are still available in the Campus Ministries office, for a suggested donation of $10.
