Dear Friends,

As I reflect on the message President Castleberry shared in chapel today, I am challenged to get a bigger picture of Jesus. Jesus is not just anybody, He is the fullness of God. As President Castleberry said, "we may not understand everything about God, but we understand what we need to know." I pray we are able to gain a better understanding of who Jesus is, and trust God fully, even though we may not always understand everything about Him.

Next Week in Chapel

Monday, We have the honor of hearing a great message from highly recognized pastor and author, Judah Smith.

Wednesday, Professor Darrell Hobson will be taking us through the next portion of scripture in Colossians 1:21-24.

Friday, I will speak on the suggested topic of Pornography. I have asked a special guest to come and share about the effects of this issue from a psychological standpoint as well my good friend who will share his personal testimony in regards to this. I'm anticipating a great week!

Social Justice

As we continue our focus on social justice and human needs, I want to first say, thank you for being so faithful to give to such a vital need. Every penny counts! Embargo has set a giving goal of $6,200 this semester and we already off to a great start! We've already raised $1,136.91 in just 4 weeks! Way to go, students!

Prayer

Our prayer list consists of many different types of needs from relationships to finances and health. As we pray for each of these needs, let's continue to be encouraged that our God knows our every need and hears our prayers. Great things are ahead!

Pursuit

Brian and Emilie McCormack will be with us again in Pursuit on Monday at 9pm. Emilie will lead us in a time of worship followed by Brian bringing a powerful word. I'm looking forward to it!

Scripture

"Christ is also the head of the church, which is his body. He is the beginning, supreme over all who rise from the dead. So he is first in ever thing. For God in all his fullness was pleased to live in Christ, and through him God reconciled everything to himself. He made peace with everything in heaven and on earth by means of Christ's blood on the cross."

Colossians 1:18-20
