Dear Friends,

With President's day on Monday and our snow day yesterday, we've had a very short week together but I hope you were able to take advantage of those two days off and get caught up with schoolwork and/or rest. As we jump into the month of March next week, I am utterly amazed at how quickly our semester is going by. Our schedules remain full but unfortunately, time does not slow down so I encourage you to use your time effectively and make the best of these last few months of the semester.

Have an excellent weekend!

Scripture

"Praise the name of God forever and ever, for he has all wisdom and power. He controls the course of world events; he removes kings and sets up other kings. He gives wisdom to the wise and knowledge to the scholars. He reveals deep and mysterious things and knows what lies hidden in darkness, though he is surrounded by light."

-Daniel 2:20-22

Next Week in Chapel

Monday, we will have Oregon District Youth Director, Brian Eno with us in chapel and pursuit. We are looking forward to having him with us!

Wednesday, Dr. Carlos Campo, President of Regent University, will be with us.

Friday, we will not meet for chapel. I'd encourage you to use this hour as an opportunity to spend time in prayer and in the word. You won't regret it!

Blood Drive

This Wednesday, March 2nd is our spring blood drive! The Puget Sound Blood Center will have their bus parked in the lot in front of the Pecota center from 11am-1pm & 2pm-5pm. To sign up for a time slot, please go to the Eagle Homepage and follow the directions under the "blood drive" post. There, you will also find some helpful tips that will help your experience go as smoothly as possible.

Social Justice

We are well on our way to reaching our offering goal of $6,200 toward the fight against Human Trafficking. Last week, we raised $900.83 bringing our total to $2,385.27! Way to go, students!

Euangelion

A group of student theologian writers have been working hard to write faith based articles that focus on the theology of Jesus and the Gospel. Below is a link to their first issue which I would encourage you read. Enjoy!

Prayer

As we fervently pray for the needs around us, let's continue to believe for the power of God to be evident in lives. Join me as we believe for miracles to take place!
