

Dear Friends,

Happy Friday! This week you were introduced to the different LifeGroups that are available this semester! Don't miss out on this incredible opportunity to connect with other students and be actively involved on campus. Check out the LifeGroup Directory under Student Services on the Eagle Homepage and find out where you can get connected.

Next Week in Chapel

Monday, we will be having our first NU Focus of the semester. Bwalya Melu, a partner of World Vision, will be sharing his personal story, and exploring this year's common reading, "The Boy Who Harnessed the Wind." Wednesday, we have a special Worship and Missions emphasis chapel with Christian Dawson leading us and Alyssa Brooks introducing the different missions' opportunities this year. Friday, I will be beginning a series on the Beatitudes, starting with "Poor in Spirit."

Pursuit – Monday Night at 9pm

This Monday, Travis Lindseth, an alumnus of Northwest University and current Worship Pastor at Stone Church in Yakima, will be leading us in an all worship Pursuit. God is moving powerfully at our Monday night Pursuit, come be a part of it!

Pursuit Conference

Save the Date, October 17-19 for our first ever Pursuit Conference! Pastor Chad Veach, a renowned communicator and youth pastor at Puyallup Foursquare will be with us for Monday and Wednesday's chapel services, as well as Monday night Pursuit and a special Tuesday evening service. Mark your calendars, invite your friends, and get excited for Pursuit Conference 2011!

Scripture Focus

The Scripture Focus verse as we walk into Week 5 is from Philippians 4:6-7. I encourage you to cling to this verse as you encounter stress relationally, financially, or academically; it is truly a promise to stand on.

"Do not be anxious about anything, but in every situation, by prayer and petition, with thanksgiving, present your requests to God. And the peace of God, which transcends all understanding, will guard your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus." – Philippians 4:6-7

Prayer

Attached is this week's prayer list; take a moment, look over this list, and let's continue to be a praying community, one that "in every situation, by prayer and petition, with thanksgiving presents our requests to God."
