

Dear Friends,

Can you believe that next week we jump right into November? With the end of the semester looming, I encourage you to review your chapel attendance at <https://discovery.northwestu.edu/course/view.php?id=7859>. Should you have questions regarding attendance, email chapelattendance@northwestu.edu. Also, our Lost and Found in the foyer is overflowing, if you lost something in the Chapel, claim it from the bin before it is donated at the end of the semester. And finally, don't forget check out my new Facebook page at <http://www.facebook.com/PastorPhilRasmussen>, and vote on what you would like to see in Chapel next semester. Respond by Friday Nov. 18th and have an opportunity to win a prize!

Next Week in Chapel

Monday, Dr. Darrell Hobson and the College of Arts and Sciences will be leading our chapel services in honor of Reformation Day. Wednesday, we have the unique opportunity to partner with World Vision and package medical kits during both chapel hours. Friday, Nancy Valnes, an Alumnus of Northwest and former missionary to Africa, will be speaking to us on the power of compassion.

Pursuit | Monday Night at 9PM

Starting at 9PM, come in your best costume as we watch Captain America! Proceeds from concessions will benefit our Embargo offering.

Scripture Focus

I love hearing what the Lord is doing in the lives of NU Students, let this next week be a time to thank him continually for who he is and what he has done.

"Enter his gates with thanksgiving and his courts with praise; give thanks to him and praise his name."
—Psalms 100:4

Offering

Last week's Embargo offering total was $440.44. We have $3243.18 left to raise, and just 5 weeks left! Money goes toward fighting human trafficking.
