

Son's Death Tragic End To Reunion

It was a long time since Mrs. Sophia Will, of 434 E. 72d St., had seen all of her boys together.

Three of them are ministers, one is in the army, and the fifth of her sons, Emil B. Will, 20, was to graduate from the Northwest Bible Institute, Seattle, in May, 1947.

Mrs. Will decided to "take a vacation" and go to Dickinson, N. D., for a family reunion. Her two daughters and one of the sons, of Seattle, were going with her.

An hour before they left, Mrs. Will received a telegram with the tragic news that Emil had been in an automobile accident in Dickinson and was not expected to live. Emil died last Saturday.

The family is expected to return to Seattle tomorrow to attend funeral services for the young theological student at 3 p. m. Friday in the Hollywood Temple. Burial will be in Acacia Cemetery, under the direction of the Green Lake Funeral Home.

Besides his mother, Emil is survived by his two sisters, Mrs. Alvina Cromwell and Anna I. Will, Seattle, and four brothers, the Rev. Oscar K. Will, Seattle; Rudolph Will, U. S. Army; the Rev. Reuben W. Will, of Dickinson, and the Rev. John H. Will, of Beach, N. D.
